The Best Tonic

When you are all tired out, feel weak, sleep does not rest and the digestion and appetite are poor, there is no remedy so effective as Horsford's Acid Phosphate.

It is a scientific and carefully prepared preparation that supplies to the system the tonic and nerve food needed to improve the general health. Insist on having Horsford's Acid Phosphate.

If your druggist can't supply you we will send small bottle, prepaid, on receipt of 25 cents.

FIRST DAY.

PORTLAND, IND., WEDNESDAY, APRIL 5, 1905.

The North Indiana Conference Methodist Episcopal Church convened in its sixty-second session in the First Methodist Episcopal Church in the city of Portland, Indiana, Bishop Henry Spellmeyer, D. D., presiding. At 8:35 A. M., the Bishop opened the session by announcing Hymn No. 415, "Rock of Ages," after the singing of which he read for a Scripture lesson Matthew, chapter XXV., and announced Hymn No. 211, "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross," which was sung.

The Bishop offered a fervent prayer for the blessing of God upon this Conference session. He then invited the Presiding Elders and pastor of the church to the platform to assist in the sacramental service. After he had consecrated the elements and administered them to the Presiding Elders, at his request Rev. C. U. Wade, Presiding Elder of this District, took further charge of the sacramental service, in which he was assisted by the other Presiding Elders. After the elements had been administered to the people, the Bishop requested the congregation to unite in the repetition of the Lord's Prayer, when he concluded this service by the use of the ritual form.

REPORTS OF PRESIDING ELDERS.

FORT WAYNE DISTRICT.

C. U. Wade, Presiding Elder.

Bishop and Brethren:—At the last Annual Conference, owing to the desire of the Northwest Indiana Conference to secure Logansport and a strip of territory off of the west side of our Conference territory, it was thought advisable to organize a Logansport District, which was done by the Bishop. He also sought to equalize the districts somewhat in the number of charges and membership.

Four charges that formerly belonged to Fort Wayne District were transferred to Goshen District, viz.: Butler, Butler Circuit, Waterloo and Corunna, with a membership of 723; making Goshen District quite equal in charges, and more nearly equal in membership to the others. Three charges—Montpelier, Pennville and Portland—with a membership of 1,009, were added to our district, giving us a net gain of 286 members and a loss of one charge.

Changes were made in all the districts, making them more nearly equal in charges and membership, but still leaving Muncie and Logansport Districts quite superior in the number of members to the other districts.

CHANGES IN CHARGES.

After the Annual Conference, we organized a new circuit and called it Oak Grove. One appointment that had belonged to Ceylon charge, but which had been abandoned practically for some years, was taken up, and this with three appointments from the Pennville Circuit were used to make Oak Grove. Rev. F. P. Johnson, a Local Preacher and student in Taylor University, was put in charge. He has had a successful year, with good revivals, and brings his charge into "class first" for missions in this beginning of its history. Pennville was made a station by the cutting off of the three appointments, and pays the same salary to its pastor now that the whole circuit formerly paid. At the close of the year all are happy and satisfied with the changes made.

CHANGE IN PASTORS.

Just after Conference, Rev. A. D. Wagner, who had been appointed to Bobo, in Fort Wayne District, and Rev. C. J. Graves, of Philadelphia, in the Richmond District, desired to exchange charges, and the transfer was made with the consent of the Bishop.

Rev. George Cocking, of Trinity Church, Fort Wayne, found that his wife, despite every effort of the physicians, was failing rapidly in health. The doctors advised a change of climate as the only hope and chance for her recovery. We secured for him a charge on the Pacific coast, at Murrietta, San Diego District, California. He surrendered his charge here the last of October and went at once to his new home. You will be delighted to hear that this change of climate has been helpful for his wife. He writes me of the date of March 22d and says: "My wife is rapidly recovering, and we feel sure that her recovery is permanent. Our boy is also greatly benefited by coming here." He desires and is promised, by the Bishop resident there, a transfer to the Southern California Conference.

Rev. John K. Cecil, of this Conference, who had been for three years in Drew Theological Seminary and doing post-graduate work in Columbia, and was assistant pastor in Passaic, N. J., was secured for Trinity charge October 30, and came at once to fill out the year.

DEATHS.

The lives of all our preachers and their wives who have been in charge have been spared to us.

Mary Sale, who for thirty-five years toiled with her husband, Rev. Francis J. Sale, in the itinerancy, and who since his translation to heaven has lived with her son, James W. Sale, of Bluffton, Ind., fell asleep in Jesus last month. She was one of the happiest Christian women, abundant in good works, filled with the Spirit, to be found anywhere, and she went sweeping through the gates praising the name of God with her last conscious breath. She was eighty-four years old.

Earl, the three-year-old son of Rev. and Mrs. O. S. Hart, of Hamilton, was suddenly called away from earth in the early autumn. He was injured by the family horse, and though great effort was made to save his life, he hied away from earth and angels carried him to the home beyond the stars.

Age and youth joined hands at the grave,
"Death with his sickle keen
Reaps the bearded grain at a breath
And the flowers that grow between."

YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETIES.

We have eighty-nine Sunday schools with a total enrollment of 11,786. We take 862 Sunday School Journals, with other Methodist Sunday School literature in like proportion. In the revivals of the fall and winter many of the scholars of the schools were led to the Savior and came into the church. Nearly all our schools are organized into missionary societies.

We have sixty-nine chapters of the Senior and Junior Epworth Leagues in the District, with a membership of 4,301. We take 576 Epworth Heralds and nearly the same number of Advocates.

The Leagues and Schools are doing well in teaching and training the young and in building up Christian character. A very enthusiastic and largely attended District Epworth League Convention was held in Garrett in June. The program was of special interest and the Convention was of great profit. A score of our young men and women were converted at the altar services in the evenings.

The Leagues of the District pledged for the support of Rev. D. O. Ernsberger, a Presiding Elder in India, and nearly the entire sum for his salary pledged at the Convention has been paid by the Leagues.

WOMAN'S HOME AND FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETIES.

Are well organized in the district, and they are effectively teaching us our duty to our neighbors at home and abroad. They have secured fine offerings to send the gospel to all persons for whom the Lord Jesus Christ died. Woman's Foreign Missionary Society has raised $1,669; Woman's Home Missionary Society has raised $1,404. Helpful District meetings were held during the year.

BUILDING OF CHURCHES AND PARSONAGES, AND IMPROVEMENTS.

At Mt. Pleasant on the Hoagland Charge, Rev. W. E. McCarty, pastor, a good brick church has been erected during the year. The pastor's wife has been seriously ill all the time; but Bro. McCarty marshaled the forces and led on. The church cost $3,500. Rev. John C. White was secured to dedicate it. He easily raised several hundred dollars to complete paying for it, and then with the pastor and good people, solemnly set it apart for the service and worship of Almighty God.

Rev. George Cocking started the building of Trinity Church, Fort Wayne. He had faith and perseverance. He completed the task, and the church was dedicated just as he was compelled to give up the charge and go with his afflicted wife to California; $9,500 was expended on the church and $500 on the parsonage. The church is well built and pleasing in appearance; but with the great revival that has been held under the new pastor, Rev. J. K. Cecil, and in which the membership has been more than doubled, the church building is too small for the rapidly growing congregation, and must be enlarged soon.

At New Haven $4,500 were used in improvements on the brick church. It looks well without, and is ornate and beautiful within. Rev. J. S. Cain, the pastor, has worked courageously and heroically in this very difficult field, and has won great victory, when many prophesied defeat.

At Monroe, Rev. J. A. Sprague, pastor, the church building has been entirely revamped and enlarged at an expense of $4,000. It is by far the best structure in the town, and all are proud of it.

Rev. W. D. Parr, the Assistant Secretary of the Church Extension Society, managed the finances, and dedicated and reopened these three churches.

Under his masterful leadership, all the sums needed to pay for the erection of the buildings were secured in cash or good subscriptions.

Our good church people of Bluffton, Ind., purchased of the Presbyterians a good frame church building at Kingsland, six miles north of Bluffton. It is well worth $1,200, and was purchased for $400. A Methodist Society has been organized there. They have contracted for another church building nine miles northeast of Bluffton, worth $1,500, for $500. A good society has also been organized here, and the Lord's work will be prosecuted in that community hereafter by our church.

At Monroeville a new parsonage has been erected at a cost of $2,000, and all paid for. Rev. George W. Martin, pastor.

At Huntertown the old parsonage was sold for $900, and a new one built near the church for $2,000, all paid or provided for. Rev. N. P. Barton, pastor.

At Hamilton the parsonage property which was at a distance from the church was sold, and a better one purchased near the church for $1,200. O. S. Hart, pastor.

At Fremont, Rev. F. A. Reichelderfer, pastor, a parsonage property has been purchased for $1,100, which is being improved somewhat, and it will make a good home for the minister and his family.

At Woodburn a parsonage property has been secured for $800, which makes this charge much more desirable for a pastor, as no house could be rented in the town, and the pastor had to live in the country five miles out from the town. Rev. J. A. Rhodenbaugh, pastor.

Improvements on church and parsonage property have been made: At Bluffton at cost of $1,000; Harlan, $560; Decatur, $1,224; Hamilton, $330; Pennville, $316; Portland, $500; Trinity, $500; Geneva, $200; Orland, 175; Hoagland, $170; Leo, $188; Oak Grove, $100, and at less expense at many other places.

Nine thousand two hundred and fifty dollars have been paid on church debts incurred prior to this year, as follows: Portland, $3,800; First Church, Fort Wayne, $1,413; Ossian, $461; Auburn, $356, and from this sum down to small amounts at Geneva, Orland, Garrett, Simpson, Wayne Street, Angola, Pennville, Harlan, Hudson, and other charges.

Present valuation of churches, $433,500; present insurance, $209,850. Valuation of parsonages, $68,100; insurance, $27,550.

PASTORS' SALARIES.

We have had a small average gain on the pastors' salaries this year. We hope the district will do better next year. Thirty-six charges reported last week that the salaries were all paid in full for Pastor, Presiding Elder and Bishop.

BENEVOLENT COLLECTIONS.

We will make a gratifying advance in all our benevolent collections. The Missionary Conventions held last fall in each charge in the district were inspiring and helpful to all collections.

Present reports from the pastors to me give us for Missions, $6,384. This is a gain of $2,201 over last year's giving, or more than 50 per cent. Fifteen charges were in "Class First" then, and 36 are in Class First now. This gain has not been made at the expense of the other collections.

We have $1,316 for Church Extension; last year $744, a gain of $572.

We have for DePauw, regular collection, $1,171; last year's regular collection, $806.

Conference Claimants this year, $1,312; last year, $1,062.

Other collections make proportionate gains.

We will support 101 native workers in the foreign field, and the Epworth Leagues of the district will support Rev. Ernsberger, a Presiding Elder in India, and who went to the Mission field from our own Conference. I hope that next year we may support his entire district. I sent the remainder of the collection for General Conference Expenses ($38) to the Chairman of the Committee on General Conference entertainment, and have his receipt for the same, and in which he states "that we have paid our entire apportionment, dollar for dollar," and the Book Concern will not have to take any money from the fund, that ought to go to support the worn-out preachers, to pay any shortage for us.

MEMBERSHIP.

The reports to me by the pastors give us 9,330 full members, and 1,371 on probation. This is a gain of 668 full members over last year's report in the Conference Minutes; or, deducting the 286 members we secured in the equalizing of the districts, it is a net gain of 382 over last year's showing. We are still a thousand short of the splendid Muncie and Logansport Districts. But we have a district manned by strong, active, earnest, consecrated, evangelistic preachers, and we hope, by the help of the Lord, to carry the pennant some day in our corner of the Conference; and shall only be defeated in this, if ever, by having some Presiding Elders who will covet our territory (as did our good brethren of the Northwest Conference some of our Conference territory), and who will get some bishop to act less wisely than did our last General Conference, and take from us a part of our hard field for cultivation.

If such envious persons should ever make such an effort, I here give notice that we will call to our aid Brothers Parr and Herrick, who at the last General Conference so ably handled our case against the Northwest as to overwhelmingly and crushingly defeat their unlawful aspirations. Brethren, better keep hands off, or we will let these veterans and heroes of Los Angeles loose upon you.

REVIVALS.

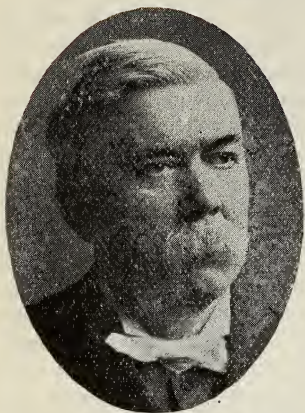

Gracious, blessed Holy Ghost revivals have been held in most of the thirty-six charges in the District, and more than 1,545 precious souls have been converted during this Revival Campaign. We held a one-day Revival Conference in Fort Wayne, on Friday, September 30th, at the close of our Missionary Convention. Our pastors were all there, and the Holy Ghost was poured out upon us, and men and women mightily shouted to God for joy. Some of the staid and comfortable people who were present, were somewhat startled. Dr. Hughes, who came to us one hour after this outpouring, to address us on "Everyday Evangelism," said "that he had not heard a person shout for ten years," but added: "I pray that like manifestations of the spirit may come upon all charges of the District." Dr. Beeks said: "This outpouring means something to the Methodism of Fort Wayne District;" and it did and has.

A very general baptism of the Holy Spirit came to many of our people in the charges of the District. Montpelier leads in the rejoicing host with 281 conversions. We do not report as converts all the good Christians who come to the altar for help, and for a more complete consecration—for any Christian ought to do that. But we report as conversions, sinners, lost souls, who pilgrimaged to the Cross to find relief and pardon, and who were born into the family of God by the Holy Ghost. Two hundred and eighty-one at Montpelier; sixty of these were men from the Bible class of the pastor's wife, and they would march into the church, singing, "'Tis the old-time religion, 'Tis the old-time religion, and it is good enough for me;" 115 have been converted at Monroeville; 118 in Woodburn Charge. Here the pastor, Rev. J. A. Rhodabaugh, broke down in his revival at Edgerton; he was putting all the strength of soul and body into the work, and the altar was crowded with penitents, when he collapsed with nervous prostration, and was bedfast and irrational for days, but the revival went on. 105 converted at Trinity, Fort Wayne; 100 at Bluffton, in First and Epworth churches; 98 at Auburn; 75 at Coesse; 70 at St. Paul, Fort Wayne; 70 at Harlan; 66 at Hamilton; 52 at Poneto; 50 each at First Church, Fort Wayne, and Garrett; 37 at Orland; 30 Fort Wayne Circuit; 27 at Simpson; and from 25 down, at Oak Grove, Pennville, Spencerville, Monroe, Geneva Circuit, Angola, Decatur, Huntertown, Hoagland, and other charges.

Oh, yes, the revival fires are still burning in the old Church—we love so well. Blessed be God! our best days and the best days for our Church are all before us! Days of greatest victories! Days of power! Days of Pentecost! What a mighty Savior we have, brethren! 6,000 converted at Louisville; 8,000 in Denver; 10,000 at Atlanta; 10,000 in Los Angeles; 100,000 in Wales; and the mighty tide sweeps on and out in the Mission fields, and nations are being born in a day! Oh, yes, ours is a Conquering Christ!

"Lift up your heads, ye friends of Jesus,
Cast to the winds your needless fears;
The Conquering Christ who calls to battle,
Will lead us on through all the years!"

GOSHEN DISTRICT.Henry W. Bennett, Presiding Elder.

Bishop and Brethren:—At the close of our last Annual Conference, Bishop McCabe reappointed me the Presiding Elder of the Goshen District. He enlarged it so that it now contains 77 preaching places, in 76 churches of our own, and in one church owned by the Baptists. There are 34 parsonages, one church having two. There are 35 charges, and to them the Bishop appointed 31 traveling preachers, one probationer in the Conference and three supplies. Within a few days every appointee was at his post. A month afterward, J. H. Walters, for reasons that seemed to be justifiable, asked to be relieved from his work. His place was filled by the appointing of R. D. Biven, pastor of the Lima charge. Within a month one of the supplies asked to be relieved; and that charge, Butler Circuit, was supplied by Benjamin Kendall. Another supply resigned at the end of six months, and that charge was supplied by P. E. Greenwalt.

All the present pastors have attended to all the work of the ministry with zeal and fidelity. Death has not removed a pastor, nor his wife, nor any of his children during the year. For this remarkable providence, we thank God.

Several children have been born in the parsonages, to the great joy of all concerned. The wives of our pastors have graced the parsonages, exhibited the results of Christian character and education, have been leaders in church work, and a never failing source of courage and inspiration to the pastors.

Some of my Anderson friends presented me with $150, requesting me to take a vacation, and visit the General Conference, and enjoy again the pleasures of a trip across the continent. By accepting their generous gift, I was absent during the month of May from the District. I am profoundly grateful to the pastors and the people for their kindness, forbearance and cooperation. I am thankful to my Heavenly Father for a reasonable degree of health. I have not been sick a day during the year. I have have attended 137 Quarterly Conferences; traveled 12,000 miles and preached, talked or lectured 200 times, and I am not tired yet. I have tried to do the work to which I was appointed. At my request, all the pastors sent me their annual reports dated March 25th. This being two weeks before the close of the year, the statistics for the full year can not be given here. Having carefully examined these reports I confess to some disappointment that our results have been no larger. The pastors have been busy men. Their reports show the times they have preached, miles traveled, books read, visits made, weddings solemnized, funerals attended, baptisms administered, meetings held, and subscriptions secured for our church papers. They had to be industrious men to accomplish the work reported. Our circuit preachers are great travelers. Fifteen have traveled over 1,000 miles. Four of them report as follows: H. D. Wright, 2,896; C. H. Wilkinson, 4,000; W. R. Wones, 4,750; Lincoln Steere, 5,027.

They have been good mixers, having made in all 34,000 visits. Twelve pastors have made 1,000 or more visits; 1,800, the highest number, was made by C. H. Wilkinson, and L. E. Knox 1,322; R. J. Wade, 1,278; H. C. Smith, 1,240; S. Light and D. H. Guild, 1,200 each.

Our pastors are students. Several have read 25 books, and one 47. The list of papers and periodicals taken show that they keep abreast of the times and in the lead as students.

The careful instruction of the church has been attended to and the directions of the Discipline concerning children and probationers have been carried out as far as could be. The reports declare that the majority of our churches are stronger this year than last.

The prevailing idea that the churches are apportioned at so much a member for the benevolences has aroused the determination to scrutinize our membership rolls and prune them down to the last permissible point; hence an enrollment of 866 new probationers, and the accession of 1,497 new members makes very little net increase in our membership.

Our pastors have looked after the interests of the Book Concern and secured 358 subscribers to the Western Advocate. Many other Advocates and religious papers are taken in our Methodist homes, and 630 Epworth Heralds are taken.

There are 73 Sunday Schools with an enrollment of about 9,000. With a few exceptions they use our literature in full, and all in part. Several are organized into missionary societies, and others contribute to missions.

Children's day is observed. The pastors make various attempts to persuade the children to attend the public worship, but succeed only in part. There are 45 Epworth Leagues with 2,152 members. There are 26 Junior Leagues with 974 members. There are 57 Ladies' Aid Societies, and they raised for all purposes $7,432. Without their aid and co-operation there would be felt a very serious embarrassment in nearly every charge.

Old debts to the amount of $6,381 have been paid; $16,197 have been expended in improvements. The present indebtedness is about $11,000, and nearly $8,000 of that is secured by subscriptions considered good. The statistics will probably show that nearly $90,000 have been raised this year by cash and subscription on the various charges by our people for the "support of the Gospel, the improvement of the church property, reforms, and the various benevolent enterprises of the church."

The question has been asked on every charge what has been done; or is proposed in aggressive temperance work. The answers run as follows: Eight have done nothing, one expects to remonstrate, one did petition the legislature, one helped to prosecute the saloon out, one circulated some temperance literature, four fought the saloons and won the victory over them, and thirteen preached on aggressive temperance work. Nappanee, under the excellent leadership of Dr. J. Wesley Oborn, captured seven slot machines valued at $1,050, and destroyed them, secured eight convictions and nine indictments in favor of reform. Several make no report.

A series of meetings in the interest of aggressive evangelism were held throughout the District, visiting every charge. It is believed that the results justified the labors and efforts of the brethren. On one of the Sabbaths of the series the pastors very generally exchanged pulpits. The District meetings of the pastors, the W. H. and W. F. Missionary Societies and the Epworth Leagues were well attended, and inspired all to renewed efforts for the expansion of the kingdom.

In the matter of improving church property the labors of Somerville Light, pastor of Trinity Church, Elkhart, deserve special mention. Under his leadership a new parsonage has been built, having every modern convenience, and the church building has been renovated, carpeted, frescoed, painted and put in the very best condition. To accomplish this over $15,000 was raised in cash by the pastor and his helpers. The unpaid remainder of the expense is amply covered with good subscriptions. The property is now one of the best equipped in our conference. Somerville Light is entitled to great praise for his efficient management of this great church. This is a revival church. All departments are well organized. Its benevolent apportionments are met, all its current expenses are paid in full, and there is money in the treasury now for the one who shall be pastor for the next year. A resolution was passed by the Fourth Quarterly Conference asking for the return of Somerville Light.

Over $10,000 was raised on the Mishawaka charge for church purposes and reform work; and the only record of the kind I believe in the conference is the action of this church in asking for the return of their pastor, Chesteen W. Smith for the eighth year.

C. H. Murray raised and expended in repairs on the Middlebury charge over $900. J. E. Coffin and M. F. Stright deserve special mention for like faithful service.

Among the churches which have tried to do business on the cash basis mention should be made of Trinity, at Elkhart, LaGrange, Mishawaka, Goshen First church, Warsaw, and a number of the small churches on the circuits. May God hasten the day when all will be able to report in each Quarterly Conference all expenses and ministerial support paid in full. When all our churches reach that standard we shall have such sweeping revivals as were never known on the Planet.

I cannot at this date give any statistics of our benevolences for the District, but enough is before me to convince me that the District will make an increase of about ten per cent over last year. While this is gratifying there is a sadness at the thought that we have not reached the full equitable apportionment for Goshen District. Each pastor will report as his judgment directs concerning these benevolences. Of this I am sure, that every pastor has done his best to bring up his charge to the standards set by those in authority. I believe that the District will pay to the W. F. M. Society $1,858, to the W. H. M. Society $1,790, and a grand total of $7,500 for missions. All other benevolences have received attention. A goodly sum has been raised and expended for reform work.

But we rejoice in the conviction of an awakening revival spirit sweeping over the District, of which we are now partaking of the advance blessings. There have been reported 1,300 conversions and 320 reclamations, making a total of 1,620. Each church has had a series of meetings; Evangelists C. Fenwick Reed, Jesse Underwood, J. O. Bills, and Miss Marshall have rendered excellent service in several series of meetings.

There is special need of duly crediting the Circuit work. The number of converts to church members is a good test of efficiency in the work of converting the people, and further, the number of unconverted people in the locality of the church. For the Stations, Butler, with 220 members, had 122 conversions and reclamations, more than one to every two members. LaGrange, with 324 members, had 122, or less than one for every two. Warsaw, with 600 members, had 275, or about the same per cent as LaGrange. For the Circuits, Wawaka, with 230 members, reports 97; Elkhart Circuit, with 128 members, reports 60; Topeka, with 250, reports 90, and Warsaw Circuit, with 200 members, reports 60. In these cases the per cent is about the same as the stations.

Our Church Records of membership have been revised very thoroughly in many cases. Numbers, who have "removed without letters," are not counted; 262 have removed with letters, 128 have died, and nine have withdrawn, making a total of 399. The reports will show an increase of members over all losses, due to the faithful work of our pastors.

There are in the District five widows of our departed preachers. They are mothers in Israel. Twenty-nine local preachers render assistance to the work.

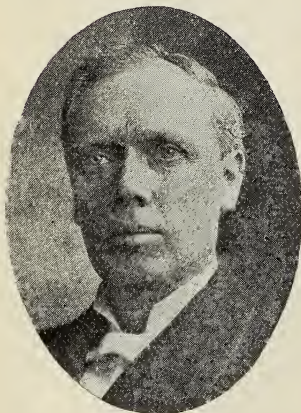

F. T. Simpson, who for five years has been a supernumerary and abundant in labors, passed to the superannuate list on account of the limitation of the law. He is constantly doing useful things for the glory of God. There are three supernumeraries and ten superannuates, which will be by the action of this conference changed to two supernumeraries and thirteen superannuates.

If space would permit, it would give me great pleasure to relate the heroic services of our pastors. All have done well. In many cases statistics do not show it. But there is heroic work which can only be seen when we stand before Our Judge in the Great Day of All Days.

I hope opportunity may be given to these worthy servants of our church to make such statements as seem to them helpful to us all, in the labors of which we are all partakers.

LOGANSPOUT DISTRICT.

H. N. Herrick, Presiding Elder.

Dear Fathers and Brethren:—Logansport District remains the same as when the appointments were read one year ago. The territory is still in the North Indiana Conference, even the city of Logansport, despite the ominous threatenings at our last session and the uncertainties of a General Conference. From present indications, the war is over and peace will reign for a quadrennium at least, and possibly longer.

In my last report it was my privilege to say: "Every man whose name was linked with a charge when the Bishop read the appointments one year ago, will report for the work to which he was then assigned."

This time I am obliged to report several changes during the year. At the close of the first six months, James E. Ferris, of Arcadia, was transferred to the East Central Africa Mission Conference, and John W. Lucas, of Walton, was transferred to the Dakota Conference. In the readjustment of these appointments, Albert S. Luring, of Goldsmith, was appointed to Walton, and two local preachers were secured, James F. Lutey for Goldsmith and George W. Snyder for Arcadia.

The health of pastors and their families has, on the average, been fairly good, with three or four exceptions. Sisters Ervin, Poor, Nethercut and Keisling have been ill most of the Conference year, some of the time seriously so. Brother E. E. Neal and family, of Elwood, have been sorely bereaved over the loss of their precious daughter, Lois, a bright and sweet spirited child of about fourteen years. During the year two of our Conference Claimants residing within the bounds of the district, have passed away—Mrs. Charlotte Andrew, one of our highly esteemed Conference widows who resided in Cicero, and Rev. Jasper I. McCoy, an honored superannuated preacher living in Denver, Ind. Suitable Memorials for both of these have already been read to the Conference.

CHURCH PROPERTY.

During the year, four churches have been dedicated and two parsonages secured. The first dedication was the Kemp Memorial, at Tipton, in the early part of June, and is one of the most beautiful churches we have in our Conference. This edifice was made possible by the bequest of about $39,000 from Abraham Kemp, and the property as it now stands is worth over $42,000. This church is built of Bedford stone, is most beautiful in its architectural design, has a complete complement of rooms for almost every conceivable purpose in carrying on the work of a live church in a thriving little city of the twentieth century, and is very tastefully finished in all of its details. While the plan of the building is not exactly like the one in which we are now assembled, yet the two are near enough alike to serve as good illustrations of each other. Great credit is due the pastor, Rev. U. S. A. Bridge, for the successful management of this difficult undertaking. The old church property has been disposed of to good advantage, and with its proceeds a new and up-to-date parsonage will probably be erected next Conference year, which will make Tipton one of the most desirable charges in the North Indiana Conference.

Our second dedication was at Hillisburg, in the month of November. During the last session of our Conference, a strong, tornado-like wind unroofed this building and partially demolished its walls. For a time it looked as if all was gone. Our society there is weak financially, but under the inspiration of the pastor, Silas L. Cates, the membership rallied, took new courage and immediately set about the work of rebuilding. The result is they have a beautiful little structure, a model in neatness and convenience, and in every way a great deal more satisfactory than before.

Our third dedication was Market Street, Logansport, in the early part of December. This building is of brick with extensive stone trimmings, has a majestic and stately appearance, is 67 x 111 feet in its extreme dimensions, cost nearly $40,000, and is exceedingly complete in all of its details. In the basement there are the prayer and Epworth League room, Junior League room, ladies' parlor, dining hall, kitchen, fuel and boiler rooms, two committee rooms and two vestibules—all of these are in the basement. The main floor, with its galleries in auditorium and Sunday school room, is in keeping with the elaborate beginnings in the rooms below. The finish in fresco and furniture is exceedingly fine. This enterprise, from beginning to end, is a marvel of energy, persistence, faith and sacrifice on the part of the pastor and the membership of the church. Instead, however, of trying to describe it accurately, you are requested to accept the invitation of the church and pastor, Earl Naftzger, to come there for our next annual session, or farther on, and see for yourselves. You will be amply paid.

Our fourth dedication in the district was at Gilead, on the Akron charge, about the middle of December, Rev. J. Z. Barrett, pastor. This church is built of cement blocks, makes a beautiful appearance, has several conveniences over the old structure which it replaced, and is a credit to the wisdom and liberality of the membership and community. The entire cost of this building was about $4,500.

Of these churches, the one at Tipton was dedicated by Dr. Hughes, of DePauw University, and those of Market Street and Gilead by Dr. Parr.

Before the pastor, W. J. Stewart, moved to the Boxley charge he began planning for a parsonage. Some of our older Conference members remember the time when Boxley was one of the most desirable circuits we had. There was then a good parsonage property at that place. In the growth of our work during the years, changes were made that removed the parsonage from Boxley. Further developments have made it seem best to make Boxley the head of a circuit again, but it was no small task to induce the people to buy or build another parsonage. The people however co-operated with the pastor beyond the most sanguine expectations of the hopeful, and we now have a parsonage property well worth about $900. The pastor has put an immense amount of time and labor into the remodeling of the house, and now the preacher on the Boxley charge has a delightful and comfortable home in which to live, and the best of all is, it is paid for.

One of the drawbacks on the Markland Avenue charge in Kokomo, ever since its organization, has been the fact that there has been no parsonage. When J. B. McNary and family moved to this charge last spring, he set himself immediately to the task of procuring a home for the pastor. The members responded quickly and liberally, and by the first of September the preacher and his family moved into a new and attractive eight-roomed parsonage, furnished with many of the modern conveniences. The house cost about $3,000, and has an indebtedness of less than $500, all of which is amply provided for in good subscription.

Broadway, Logansport, has made substantial progress in the erection of their new house of worship. The corner-stone was laid in the early part of October, on a Monday afternoon, with Bishop Vincent officiating, after an interesting and profitable program on the preceding Sunday, participated in by the Bishop and Dr. Parr. To say Dr. Parr was there is but another way of saying a special effort was made to raise money, and of course it was successful. Dr. Parrish, the pastor, is putting into this enterprise a great deal of time and energy, if not his very life. When the building is completed, it will be a beautiful structure and a model in many ways. It will probably be ready for dedication before the cold weather comes next year.

During the year repairs on churches and parsonages, ranging from $50 and more, have been made on the following charges: Akron, $200; Alto, $60; Amboy, $185; Arcadia, $94; Atlanta, $150; Bunker Hill, $150; Center, $139; Cicero, $208; Denver, $85; Elwood, $70; Forest, $115; Frankton, $265; Galveston, $160; Hillisburg, $150; Kempton, $150; Kokomo Circuit, $243; Market Street, Logansport, $50; Wheatland Avenue, Logansport, $135; Mexico, $275; New Waverly, $73; Santa Fe, $60; Sheridan, $65; Tipton, $50; Windfall, $130.

THE BENEVOLENCES.

During the three years immediately preceding the one now closing, this district made an average annual gain in the benevolences for which the pastors were responsible, of $1,357. For missions, the average annual increase was $889. This year the showing will not be so favorable. Had the charges kept up their average increase, even then the results for the district would have shown quite a decrease compared with last year. The charges constituting the district AFTER the appointments were read last spring, contributed for missions alone $1,010 LESS than the district did as made up when the Conference convened. This loss of over one thousand dollars for one cause is not easily overcome, even when all other conditions are equal to those of the preceding year. Several of the charges, however, have made commendable increase, while some have fallen below the record of last year. Nevertheless, we believe that good, faithful service has been done by every pastor in the district.

The district has kept up its interest in Dr. Pyke's work in the North China Conference, and about the same number of shares have been obtained as last year, save those lost by change in district boundary. So far as the Presiding Elder knows, every one who has contributed in this way is well pleased with the plan.

MINISTERIAL SUPPORT.

The increase in amounts estimated for pastors' cash salaries, for the two years immediately preceding the one now closing, averaged $2,182 each year. This year it will be but little over $800, which, however, will bring the district up to the amount estimated last year before the changes were made, and is creditable, we think, in view of the large advances in the years preceding. It is due the district stewards to say of them as last year, that of their own motion they voted an increase of $150 on the Presiding Elder's claim over the year preceding, but on his request he was granted the privilege of taking that much off the apportionments to the weaker charges.

PASTORAL LABOR.

A large part of a pastor's work can not be put into statistical form. His time in the study; the burdens borne for the sick and sorrowing, the unfortunate, the tried and tempted; his co-operation with all agencies in the community where he lives that look toward the suppression of vice, the destruction of the liquor traffic, and the lifting up of the fallen and depraved—all these, and many other phases of legitimate religious effort, consume no small part of his time. The building of churches and parsonages, the improving of church property, the raising of the benevolences, and other matters more or less of a financial character, often take a great deal of a pastor's time and might with propriety be included under pastoral labor.

The smallest number of sermons reported is 81, and the largest number is 236. Three brethren having the largest number are not very far apart, their reports being 221, 225 and 236. These are from 50 to 75 more than any other pastor in the district. There are two ways of accounting for this. One is, all three were their own evangelists and held twelve, thirteen and fourteen weeks of revival meetings. The other way, and this applies to only two of them (those having the largest number), is the fact that these brethren served adjoining charges, and every two weeks in going to their afternoon appointments often met each other on the way. Whether they traded sermons or not, when they met, was not set forth in their reports to the Presiding Elder. The pastors in the district averaged 133 sermons each.

Thirty-five of the thirty-seven pastors in the district report 20,041 calls and visits—an average of 573 to each pastor. Those reporting over 1,000 each are the pastors of Grace Church, Kokomo, 1,412; Markland Avenue, Kokomo, 1,556, and Peru, 1,800.

Thirty-three pastors report an aggregate of church periodicals, as follows: North-Western, 6; Christian Advocate, 29; Western, 452; Epworth Herald, 588. Thus it is seen that the Herald has over one hundred more than the other three taken together. The difference, however, is not so great as last year; the Herald has lost some and the Western gained a few. Peru reports the largest number of Westerns, 112, and Grace Church, Kokomo, the next, 63.

Thirty-four pastors report 247 weeks of revival meetings, an average of $7\frac{1}{4}$ for each pastor. The shortest time reported was two weeks, and the longest, fourteen weeks. These pastors report 1,242 persons converted and 324 reclaimed, making a total of 1,566. A conservative estimate of the number converted and reclaimed is not far from 1,700. The following charges reported 25 or more persons converted or reclaimed: Alto, 36; Amboy, 97; Atlanta, 60; Center, 68; Elwood, 39; Forest, 75; Galveston, 45; Goldsmith, 72; Hillisburg, 87; Kempton, 45; Grace Church, Kokomo, 245; Markland Avenue, Kokomo, 196; Market Street, Logansport, 150; New Waverly, 82; Sheridan, 32; Tipton, 100. Some of the most faithful work has been done on charges, with excellent results to the spiritual life of the Church, but the ingathering was small and the number of conversions few. Many of us are obliged to rely upon One, whose record includes so many things which mortals do not see; who looks upon things not seen but eternal. His record may leave out much we consider of great value.

MUNCIE DISTRICT.

Leslie J. Naftzger, Presiding Elder.

In making this my first annual report of the work on Muncie District, I desire first of all to express my sincere gratitude to our heavenly Father for his goodness to me and his presence with me, and for the health that has made it possible for me to attend to all of my work without any hindrance or serious delay. I am also very deeply indebted to the good fellowship and wise counsel as well as to the earnest work and intelligent administration of the pastors of the district for whatever of advancement we have made and the good accomplished. I have truly felt all the year that there has been with me "a company of men whose hearts God had touched." I did not bring to the work of the district the enthusiasm that comes from the accomplishment of a desired end. I did not greatly desire this office. I rather brought to the position that earnestness and determination that comes from the feeling that it is God's appointment, and that he expected me not only to do what seemed to me my duty, but my best for him. I had no well-defined idea of special achievement along any one line, but rather a determination to emphasize everything that belonged to Methodism, and more especially the things that belong essentially to spiritual life and its development. How well we have succeeded, the reports will show only in a measure; there has been a vast amount of personal sacrifice, prayer and tears that cannot be expressed in words, formulated into sentences or put into figures. God has taken note and the judgment will reveal all of these things.

We raised as our watchword at the beginning of the year ten thousand souls for Christ in Muncie District this year. The reports of the pastors to me indicate that we have fallen far short of that number, but I am convinced that we have accomplished more than if we had placed our expectations lower.

Immediately after the adjournment of last Conference, Redkey was replaced in this district, with my consent, by Bishop McCabe, and Selma was taken out by him, over my protest. Also, W. W. Kent was returned to Noble St., Anderson, and H. G. Porter to Yorktown, instead of changing as appointed by the Conference. In the early part of September the exchange of Brothers H. G. Porter and L. A. Sevits was effected, on account of the health of the wife of the former, and they began their work at Yorktown and Miami, Florida, about the first of October. Bro. Sevits is not a stranger to us, having formerly been a member of this Conference. He has done excellent work in this small station, and will be able to report more than two dollars per member for missions and the other benevolences full.

While Bro. Everett M. Foster and Bro. M. Pell were very sick during the year, the former with typhoid fever and the latter with pneumonia, no pastor has been called from his work by death this year. Bro. John A. Pit-tenger, a faithful local preacher, who was abundant in labors, was suddenly called home in November. His memory in DeSoto charge is glorious, and we rejoice with him that the eyes that were for so many years blind in this world now behold the King in his beauty. May his mantle fall upon others. On Sabbath evening, December 11, our dear brother, E. F. Hasty, was greatly bereaved in the death of his beloved wife. During all the years of his ministry she had been a devoted, helpful, inspiring companion, especially successful in her work among the young people and children. The end came somewhat suddenly and beautiful as the closing of a glorious June day. While the inspiring words of Cardinal Newman's hymn, "Lead, Kindly Light," were being sung in the room below by a dear friend she went to meet the angelic host and the loved ones gone before. Our brother has the prayers and sympathy of a wide circle of friends who have known them and loved them in the charges they have served.

On Sabbath morning, March 5th, just as a glorious day was dawning, the portals of the other world were thrown open and admitted the redeemed spirit of our dear sister, the wife of our beloved brother, I. W. Singer. The end came without warning and as a great shock to our brother. She was awake at three o'clock in the morning and expressed her solicitude for the quarterly meeting services, especially gave instructions in regard to the wine for the sacrament of the Lord's Supper, assured her husband that she was feeling better and fell asleep. At about six o'clock our brother was aroused by her labored breathing, and without recovering consciousness she passed away to be with Jesus. Dr. Singer is wonderfully sustained by the comfort wherewith he has comforted others.

Early in the year, under the efficient leadership of Bro. A. G. Neal, our people at Alexandria began to clear away the rubbish from the fire which had destroyed their beautiful new church, and on Sabbath, August 7th, they dedicated to God a house of worship more beautiful and complete in every way than the one destroyed, and without additional debt. This was accomplished at an expense of about $9,000. The financial management was in the hands of that master church-dedicator, Rev. William D. Parr, D.D., of our Conference. I should like to speak more at length of this beautiful building, but you will see it when you come to the next session of our Conference, for you are all going to vote for Alexandria, and only exclaim, "The half was not told us."

A beautiful new church was erected at Eden, on the Ingalls charge, at an expense of $8,566.48, and was dedicated early in the year by Bishop John H. Vincent. This is one of the most beautiful and complete country churches in the Conference and speaks volumes in praise of the pastor, J. W. Zerbe, as a faithful and wide awake minister.

Two years ago we began work at Ninth Street in Noblesville and T. A.

Graham was placed in charge. An organization was perfected, plans made, and this year they dedicated, on December 11th, a substantial frame church with concrete foundation, at a cost of over $3,000. Rev. C. M. Sims was master of ceremonies. Since then a glorious revival, in which many were saved and united with the church, has been held and this church has a bright future. Also, a new church, costing over $3,000, was dedicated at Fisher's, on this same charge, on the last Sabbath in February, free from debt, under the management of Dr. Parr. Bro. Graham has served parts of this charge for the past six years and has proven himself a faithful and wise administrator. This charge of six appointments will ask to be divided at this Conference, thus making two charges. They already have a parsonage at Fisher's.

At Albany a new brussels carpet has been placed upon the floor, the church beautifully frescoed. This church is now entirely free from debt and will make the best report in its history. Benevolences far above its apportionment. Avondale, Muncie, has placed a new bell in its cupola. Grace Church, Hartford City, has been reroofed, refrescoed and otherwise improved, at an expense of $1,000. Bro. J. W. Cain has had an excellent year and will make a good report to Conference.

Projected improvements include a new church at Pendleton, to cost about $15,000, of which over $10,000 has been subscribed and partly paid in. The foundation is in, the material on the ground, and this church will be dedicated early in the next year, thus placing this charge in an entirely new grade. Also a new church at Carmel, to cost $5,000.

Old indebtedness has been paid on several churches, notably at Normal City and Madison St., Muncie. We have church property to the value of $386,750 with only about $24,000 indebtedness. Parsonages to the value of $47,750 with only a few hundred dollars indebtedness.

We will not quite reach our expectations for the benevolences, but will make an excellent showing. Several churches report more than one dollar per member for missions alone. Yorktown two dollars per member and Redkey two dollars per member and probationer. Nine charges report a gain over last year, and twenty-four report apportionments more than full. Our totals are as follows: Missions, $8,164; Church Extension, $880; F. A. and S. Ed., $732; DePauw, $1,259; Children's Day, $292; Sunday School Union, $123; Tracts, $73; American Bible Society, $272; Sustentation, $490; Conference Claims, $1,353.

We report 1,015 received on probation; 430 into full connection; 1,415 as now on probation, and 10,287 full members. We also report 2,473 conversions and 226 as receiving the blessing of entire sanctification. Our pastors have made 22,427 visits during the year. C. C. Cissell made 1,350, F. P. Morris 1,150. Sherman Powell 1,105, and J. P. Chamness and C. J. Everson 1,000 each. The following charges each report over 100 conversions: First Church, Anderson, 475; High St., Muncie, 400; Noblesville, 152; Whitely and Daleville, 150; Hartford City Ct., 135; McCordsville, 107. The following report over 50 each: Albany, Alexandria, Madison Ave. and Noble St., Anderson, Eaton, Gaston, Ingalls, Normal City, Muncie and Shideler.

Seven of our parsonage homes have been gladdened by the coming of infantile visitors—a total of four girls and three boys.

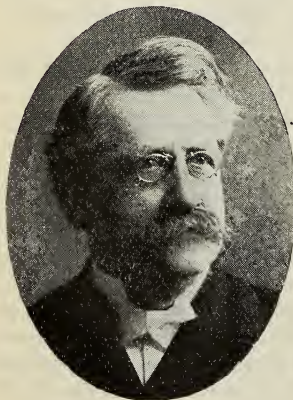

In closing my report, I desire to express my great appreciation of the Supernumerary and Superannuated brethren in this district. They are all sweet in spirit, faithful in service and delightful in fellowship. Brothers E. L. Jones, W. W. Brown, P. J. Albright and D. D. Powell have each preached a number of times. Bro. Albright, particularly, has been in demand and has preached almost every Sabbath. He has come to be known as the assistant Presiding Elder.

During my absence as a delegate to the General Conference the work was faithfully looked after by Bro. J. O. Bills and Bro. Albright. They have my sincere thanks for their good work.

Our Muncie District preachers' meeting, which meets twice a month, the first Monday at Muncie and the third at Anderson, has proven a great blessing and an inspiration. Our District Conference was helpful, inspiring and instructive. The brethren are not ready to vote it out of existence. We rejoice in what has been accomplished, but are humiliated and saddened to know so much more ought to be done. Brethren, pray for us. Ours has been the blessing and the service; to God be all the glory.

RICHMOND DISTRICT.

G. H. Hill, Presiding Elder.

The year closes on the Richmond District with marked tokens of the Divine favor. No vacancy has occurred in any of our charges during the year. I might speak of it as a somewhat exceptional fact, that during the five years of my incumbency of the office of Presiding Elder, but one vacancy has occurred in the interim of the Conferences. That during the extended period of five years, death has not laid his hand on a single pastor in the District, seems, to say the least, unusual. While in the previous four years the silent reaper has not altogether passed by the parsonage homes, this year no pastor's family has been visited by the unwelcome messenger.

With few exceptions, the pastors' homes have been spared serious illness. While the pastors' homes have been spared the keen sorrows of bereavement, death has taken one of our beloved Superannuates. On the — day of December, Brother W. E. Curtis closed his eyes on earth to open them upon the splendors of the City of Light. You have already listened to the Memoir of this beloved man of God. I wish simply to add my personal tribute to his memory. He left no stain upon his escutcheon. His piety was unquestioned; his devotion to the cause of his Master unceasing.

This year, like the preceding, has been marked by noteworthy achievement in the building and improvement of churches in the Richmond District. The first of these to be completed was at Lewisville. Plans were matured, a good subscription secured, the contract let and the foundation put in for this church last fall. In the spring, work was pushed rapidly forward, and on the 16th day of October one of the most beautiful, convenient and tastefully constructed church edifices to be found in the smaller towns of Indiana was dedicated. About $9,000 was expended in this enterprise. It was necessary to raise $5,000 of this at the dedication, but under the masterful direction of Dr. Parr, the full amount needed was secured. Brother J. W. Walters, the pastor, was, from the inception of this undertaking, constant and tireless in his efforts to carry it forward to successful completion.

Our magnificent temple at New Castle, begun last year, has been completed, and on the 12th day of February was dedicated to the service of Almighty God. In the building of this church our people outran their purpose at the beginning, exceeding their estimates as well as their supposed ability by not less than ten thousand dollars. It was with some apprehension that the church faced the work to be done on the day of dedication. Sixteen thousand dollars was needed to clear the church of indebtedness. But when our Ajax in lifting financial burdens, Dr. Parr, put his shoulders underneath the task, some of us who had witnessed his success on other occasions under similar conditions felt assured of victory. Our hopes were not disappointed. The money was raised, and to-day the church at New Castle is rejoicing in the possession of one of the most beautiful, commodious and substantial houses of worship in the State of Indiana. The cost of this splendid structure, in cold cash, was about $40,000. But the real cost of such an enterprise can not be told by figures. Into such an estimate must enter values that no metric system yet invented can measure. In this inventory must be included the ceaseless solicitude, the sleepless nights, the unwearied labors and the expenditure of vital force contributed by the faithful pastor; the constant vigilance, the time, thought and ceaseless care of the trustees; and last but by no means least, the prayers and sacrifices of those who love the Church above their chief joy. In the great enterprise at New Castle, none of these elements were wanting.

Besides the foregoing, two other church building enterprises, somewhat less in magnitude but of much local interest and importance, have been carried to successful completion during the year. One of these is on the Millgrove charge. This work was begun last year under the vigorous leadership of the pastor, Brother W. C. Asay. This church, built at the cost of a little over $4,600, was dedicated on the 6th day of November, 1904, by Dr. Edwin H. Hughes. When completed, $700 was needed to liquidate the indebtedness. This was secured on the day of dedication. At the last quarterly meeting the pastor reported that the last dollar of the debt had been paid.

Early in the Conference year the pastor of the Philadelphia Charge, not finding sufficient scope for his energies in a four appointment circuit, concluded to seek additional territory. With this end in view, he had a meeting in the little village of Gem, organized a class, and proceeded to build for it a modest but adequate home. This little church cost about $1,500. It was dedicated on the 26th day of February by Brother John C. White. Three hundred and fifty dollars was needed to cancel all claims. A little more than this amount was raised.

Besides the new buildings erected, very considerable improvements have been made on our church property during the year. The most extensive of these improvements has been made on Grace Church, Richmond. This church building has been transformed within and without, at an expense of over $8,000. It was money well expended. Save that the beautiful Gothic form has been preserved, this church is to all intents a new structure. Here, too, the faithful work and vigilant supervision of the pastor, Dr. M. S. Marble, assured success. Here again the invaluable services of Dr. Parr were called into requisition at the reopening, when the money to pay for the improvements was secured.

Other improvements have been made, as follows: On the Blaine charge, about $700 have been expended in church and parsonage improvements; Fountain City, $245; Greenfield, $250; Knightstown, $700; Millgrove, $350; Philadelphia, $400; First Church, Richmond, $250; Ridgeville, $100; Union City, $200; Winchester, $200.

In addition to work already accomplished in actual construction and improvement, steps have been taken which will insure the erection the coming year of a much needed church at Spiceland. For years this need has not only been manifest, but urgent. But the undertaking has seemed so much beyond their ability, that pastors and people have hitherto shrank from the effort. However, the present pastor, Brother M. B. Parounagian, had the courage to take hold of the problem. The effort justified his faith; $3,000 has already been secured in good subscriptions, and there is more in sight. The people are both surprised and delighted. It is proposed to build a church costing about $5,000, and the people now look upon the work as sure of accomplishment.

During the year a neat and commodious parsonage has been purchased in Portland for the Blaine Charge, at a cost of $950. Four hundred and fifty dollars of this sum has already been paid.

Only a few days ago our people of Fifth Street, Richmond, purchased a parsonage property at a cost of $1,500. This is a greatly needed acquisition by this church. The high rents that prevail in Richmond have imposed a heavy burden on this young and struggling church in providing a suitable home for the pastor. In removing this burden, a forward step has been taken which we are sure will have a pronounced effect upon the future work and welfare of this church. The purchase of this parsonage leaves but two of the thirty-three charges in the District without a home for the preacher.

Nearly every charge in the District will this year report an increased amount for the benevolences. In some of the charges this increase is so marked as to deserve special mention. This is notably the case with the Selma and Farmland circuits. In both these charges, the amount raised for the benevolences will exceed the salaries of the pastors. We claim Selma as the banner circuit of the Conference in its contribution to the benevolent work of our Church. Farmland, with one less appointment, is a close second. We have on the Farmland Charge one brother and his wife, who deserve special mention as examples of devotion to the Lord's cause in the consecration of their earthly substance to His service. This brother owns a small farm. For some years he has been a tither. About a year since, oil was discovered on his farm. When I heard this, I trembled with apprehension. I was fearful lest the flowing into his lap of a much larger income than he had been accustomed to, might awaken some latent spirit of greed and he would no longer recognize the Lord's claim to His tenth. The sudden acquisition of unlooked-for wealth, as we know, sometimes has this effect. It sometimes happens that one's soul grows small as his possessions grow large. That I should have had this fear for this good brother shows that I had not rightly estimated the completeness of his consecration. For a time he was satisfied to go on as before, giving his tenth. But at length the nineteenth seemed too large a portion to retain for his own needs. After carefully considering the matter with his good wife, he concluded that one-half of what he was receiving would sufficiently provide for all future needs, and now he is cutting his income into two equal parts, putting one half into the Lord's treasury and reserving the other half for his own needs. Would that such examples might be multiplied.

While we are not up to the standard in our support of the benevolent work of our Church, it is encouraging to know that we are making progress. In 1900, the total amount contributed by the Richmond District for the benevolences of our Church, exclusive of bequests and special gifts, was $6,023. Last year the amount was $8,241. This year it is over $10,000. Deducting from this latter sum the amount of $700, on account of the two additional charges, we have a net gain of over $1,000 over last year, and nearly $4,000 over 1900.

In the spiritual work of the Church, the year now closing has been one of more than usual prosperity. A marked feature of the special meetings held has been the spiritual quickening of the churches, and the large number of conversions within the Church. While the economy of our Church was specially designed to secure the conversion of all who should enter its fold, it is nevertheless true that great numbers pass from the probationary period into full membership without being converted. Some of the most serious problems that confront the Church to-day arise from this fact. What makes the case more serious, is, that the unconverted man once inside the Church, his conversion becomes increasingly difficult and improbable. Hence a revival in which the unconverted church member is reached and saved, should be hailed as among the most marked and hopeful manifestations of infinite grace. Not only is the soul thus saved rescued from serious peril, but a positive menace and hindrance to the Church is removed.

The fact above stated will explain the reason of the disparity between the number of conversions and the number of probationers received. The reports of the pastors show that over 500 have been received on probation, while there have been over 850 conversions. The most extensive revivals have occurred on the Philadelphia Charge, where the pastor, Brother A. D. Wagner, reports 172 conversions and 127 received on probation; and the Dunkirk Charge, where there have been 143 conversions and 96 received on probation. Spiceland reports 48 conversions; Middletown, 40; Greenfield, 40; Economy, 31; Lynn, 19; Farmland, 23; Millgrove, 17; New Burlington, 65; Parker, 15; First Church, Richmond, 41, Grace Church 13, Fifth Street Church 30; Charlottesville, 75; Trenton, 24; Dublin and Lewisville, 22; Shirley, 35; Winchester, 40; Ridgeville, 23.

Forty-two thousand dollars has been paid on church indebtedness. The present indebtedness is about $22,000. A large part of this indebtedness is covered by subscriptions not yet matured.

I regret to say that the reports of the pastors do not show the increase in the subscription list of the Western Christian Advocate which it was hoped that its reduced price would insure. All readers of the Western will concede that in point of literary excellence and intellectual ability it has reached a very high standard, but the fact confronts us that only a very small percentage of its large constituency care to read its pages. The reason of this indifference should be sought and it should be found, and when found, the remedy should be applied, if there be any remedy.

The reports of the pastors show a net increase in the membership of the District of 460. No part of this increase is due to the additional territory annexed to the District; it is the actual gain in the several charges as reported by the pastors.

We have in this District 34 Chapters of the Epworth League. With few exceptions, the League is doing excellent work. In some of our charges it is the right arm of the pastor in the spiritual work of the Church. An inspiring convention was held at Greenfield in the early part of June. Rev. E. E. Trippier, the efficient District President, is unremitting in his efforts to advance the lines of this division of the Lord's army. The Junior work of the District was never in a more prosperous condition.

I ought not to close this report without mentioning the work of the different Woman's Societies in the District. Both the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Societies have worked with commendable zeal and success. The work done by the Ladies' Aid Societies has, in many instances, been little less than heroic. It is no exaggeration to say that but for their zeal and untiring labors, much done in the way of church and parsonage improvement would not have been accomplished.

It is with regret that I announce the departure from our ranks at this Conference of one of our number. Brother F. M. Stone, the Bishop approving, leaves us for a new field of labor. It is gratifying to me to be able to say that in going from us for a time Brother Stone carries with him into the arduous work and grave responsibilities he is about to assume, as Financial Secretary of the Woman's College at Baltimore, the prestige of victory in the work from which he retires, together with the sympathy and love of his brethren. The pastorate of Brother Stone at Dunkirk has been a great success. He has had great revivals, and leaves the charge in splendid condition for his successor.

In closing this already too lengthy resume of the work of the Richmond District for the year now closing, I wish to express my gratitude to my brethren in the ministry for their unfailing courtesy, sympathy and charity. Thus far my relations with the pastors of the District have not, to my knowledge, been marred in a single instance by personal alienation or friction. The only friction of which I have been conscious is the friction of brotherly love.

I should also add that what is true of the ministers of the District applies equally to the laity. It is my constant prayer that upon both ministers and laymen may fall such outpourings of the Spirit as shall greatly enrich their personal experience of the things of God, and insure for their work in the future a success unprecedented in the past.

WABASH DISTRICT.

E. L. Semans, Presiding Elder.

Bishop Spellmeyer and Brethren of the Conference:—In making my report my heart responds to the words of Revelation: "Unto Him that hath loved us and washed us from our sins in His own blood, and hath made us kings and priests unto God and His Father, to Him be glory and dominion forever and ever."

I have enjoyed the best of health. My pastors and the people have taken such good care of me that I have not so much as taken cold during the year. I have greatly enjoyed my work, and have been able to hold all my Quarterly Conferences except one.

The District is composed of nineteen stations and fifteen circuits, and is manned by as noble a body of men as you will find anywhere in the church. The District is in the very heart of the Conference and is the garden spot of the State. It embraces the counties of Wabash, Grant, Huntington and Whitley and parts of Kosciusko, Noble, Wells and Howard. It possesses wonderful possibilities, which are being developed as fast as is consistent with a healthy and permanent growth.

Last year there were reported 8,617 members, the smallest number of any District in the Conference. We will not be able to report so large an increase this year as we had hoped, for two reasons: We have suffered greatly by removals, especially in the gas belt, and in revising the record of membership we find the report last year is much too large. For example, First Church, Marion, reported last year 1,000 members. A committee, with the pastor, have carefully gone over the record and find less than 800. The pastors have all done faithful service, and their reports will show that they have not labored in vain.

There have been the following changes during the year: E. T. Liddell, who was appointed to supply Van Buren Circuit, did not come to his charge until late in May. He only remained a few weeks, when he wrote me that he was going to give up his work, and without waiting for a reply left his charge. In August I secured Roscoe Haindel to supply for the rest of the year. He has rendered faithful service.

The first of September F. M. Kemper was transferred to the St. John's River Conference, Florida, and Rev. Wm. J. Harkness was transferred from that Conference and took Brother Kemper's place as pastor of First Church, Wabash.

Last October W. L. Singer was transferred to the Northern Minnesota Conference and stationed at Cass Lake. I secured Rev. S. Burt Stookey to supply the charge for the remainder of the year. He has done most efficient service and there is a very urgent request for his return.

Titus M. Hill had the good fortune to find on his charge a precious jewel in the form of Miss Maude A. Strain. They were married March 12, 1905. Congratulations are in order.

Rev. W. J. Vigus has rounded out forty-five years in the active ministry. He has served twice as Chaplain in the army—during the Civil War and the Spanish-American War. It looked for a while as though we were going to lose him from our State, but he has finally concluded to live in Wabash. This decision has brought joy to the hearts not only of the Methodists of Wabash, but of all the people of the city.

Death has invaded the home of Brother H. W. Miller, at Van Buren, and claimed little Susie, aged five years. She was a beautiful child. We laid her to rest March 7, 1905. She has simply been taken from her home on earth to the glorious home in Heaven.

Rev. J. W. Bowen, of South Whitley, on the 27th of March, was stricken suddenly with nervous prostration and was unconscious for twenty-four hours. It seemed for a time that he could not recover, but he is now able to sit up. The physicians say that with a few weeks' rest he will be strong enough to continue his work. His sickness is the result of overwork. He has had a gracious revival, and the church is in the most hopeful condition that it has been for twenty years.

We have in the District 81 churches and 28 parsonages, valued at $375,000. Four new churches have been built during the year. Near the Soldiers' Home in Marion there were a thousand people without church privileges. Rev. J. H. Runkle and I went and looked over the field. We were impressed with the needs of its people. Mr. Evans, who owns a glass factory, offered to donate two lots. A Board of Trustees from First Church and Grace Church was appointed. Early last summer a Sunday School was started and preaching services were held by Brothers T. M. Guild and J. H. Runkle. They met with so much encouragement that steps were taken at once to build a church.

The point was attached to Van Buren Circuit that the work might have the supervision of a pastor. As a result we have a beautiful church, which was dedicated on New Year's day, free from debt. We now have a membership, including probationers, of 87; a Sunday School of about 100 scholars. The prayer-meetings are largely attended.

Our people at Upland have felt the need of a new church for a long time. During the year, under the energetic leadership of George H. Myers, the pastor, the work was begun and consummated February 5, when the church was dedicated. All indebtedness was fully provided for, with a wide margin for shrinkage. The church cost about $12,000. It is a beautiful house of worship, built of brick and Bedford stone. It is a monument to the energy of the pastor and devotion of the people.

Van Buren was made a station last year. Soon after Conference the work of raising subscriptions for a new church was started, and so well was it managed by the pastor, H. W. Miller, that the church, costing $10,000, was dedicated the 22d of January, 1905, with only $700 to raise to meet all indebtedness. Great credit is due the pastor for his skillful management of the enterprise. This charge is in a very prosperous condition.

Swayzee has had a marvelous history. A few years ago we had nothing there. This year the pastor, Charles M. Hobb, led out in a new church enterprise, which resulted in a $7,500 church, which was dedicated February 5 by Dr. Wm. D. Parr. It was a great success. All the debt was provided for. The dedication was followed by a revival meeting, conducted by the pastor, which resulted in sixty-five conversions and sixty accessions to the church. Swayzee wants to be made a station, with C. M. Hobbs as pastor.

The church at Roanoke, because of defective foundation, had to be rebuilt, at a cost of $3,300. The dedication was followed by revival services, which resulted in many conversions.

First Church, Marion, has added a steam heating plant and other improvements, at a cost of $8,445.

Our people at Markle have bought a lot adjoining the church for $1,000, on which they expect to build a new church in the near future.

The people at Huntington have expended about $5,000 in church improvement.

PARSONAGES.

There has been a new parsonage built at Liberty Mills. This was greatly needed. It is paid for except about $200.

The church at LaGro was so near the railroad that the passing trains disturbed the services. Soon after Conference the pastor, E. F. Gates, purchased a lot in a beautiful location and moved the church and built a parsonage on the same lot. These improvements cost $2,100 and are all paid. The charge has advanced the salary to $800 and very much desire the return of their pastor. Pt. Isabel have sold their parsonage and bought a much more desirable property. The parsonage at Upland has also been sold and another property has been secured next to the church. This was a very wise move on the part of the church.

CHURCH LITERATURE.

All our Sunday schools are taking our literature, except the school at Bippus. The Advocate list is not as large as it ought to be. The paper is not popular with most of our people. This is greatly to be deplored. They need the weekly visits of a live spiritual paper. It is God's agent to enlighten them in regard to the needs and work of the church. In my judgment, the publishers made a great mistake in taking away the preacher's commission. If the price of the paper had been reduced to the amount of the commission there would be less objection. But to increase the price of the paper fifteen cents, and take that out of the pockets of the hard-worked pastor, is a very serious mistake. At least the pastor should have his paper free. The Epworth Herald has in some degree supplanted the Advocate. This ought not to be. The Advocate ought to be so entrenched in the hearts of our people that nothing can supplant it.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

The League is doing faithful service. The young people are loyal to the church and pastor. The convention held last June at Columbia City was a spiritual uplift to all present. We are anticipating a great time at Huntington next June.

The District Lyceum held at Warren last October was a great success. The sermons, address and papers were of a high order and deeply spiritual. The climax was reached when Dr. Hughes, President of DePauw University, gave his inspiring lecture on "Personal Evangelism."

During September one-day conventions in the interest of benevolences were held throughout the district.

BENEVOLENCES.

There has been a gradual growth in the collections for our various connectional interests. We shall be able to report, judging from the partial reports received, about $800, increase for missions.

REVIVALS.

The district has been blessed with many gracious revivals. If time would admit, we would like to mention many charges where God has poured out his Spirit in great power. The number of conversions reported exceeds any year since we have been connected with the district. One thousand seven hundred and fifty-five conversions and reclamations have been reported.

Shall we not all join in the words of the Psalmist: "Bless the Lord, O my soul and all that is within me bless his holy name, who forgiveth all thine iniquity; who healeth all thy diseases; who redeemeth thy life from destruction; who crowneth thee with loving kindness and tender mercies."

AGGRESSIVE EVANGELISM.

WHEREAS, The spirit of revival has been so rarely felt in the churches of our land in the last quarter of a century; and

WHEREAS, These conditions of lethargy are so alarmingly destructive to the church that we so dearly love, in that it removes from her the abundant life and fruitfulness that should be hers; and,

WHEREAS, There has been a growing desire for revivals all over our land, in the hearts of both pastors and people,

Resolved, That we heartily approve the action of the General Conference in creating the "Commission on Aggressive Evangelism," not only by word here but by co-operation in their plans for the spreading of revival fires and the feeding of the hungry souls about us.

That we commend the wisdom of the Program Committee in arranging for a visit to our Conference by a member of the General Conference Commission, and recommend this plan to future Conference program committees.

That we express our high appreciation of the services of Rev. J. P. Brushingham in his address on Evangelism.

That we endorse the proposition offered by the "Battle Ground Camp-meeting Association"—that a great evangelistic assembly be held on their grounds at which they propose to entertain all the members of the various commissions in Michigan, Indiana, Illinois and Wisconsin, and we determine to do all in our power to make such an assembly a success.

That we hasten to urge our people to prayer for a great outpouring of Divine grace upon our church.

We recommend the following officers for the approval of the Conference: President, C. U. Wade; Secretary, S. Light; Treasurer, Fred. F. Thornburg.

C. H. BROWN, Chairman pro tem.

FRED. F. THORNBURG, Secretary pro tem.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

Some one has said, "The American Bible Society is the great Plowshare of all Missionary effort, preparing the soil for the reception of the Gospel seed." It is more than the figure indicates, it not only prepares the soil, but furnishes also the seed for the gracious sowing. It opens the hearts and homes and makes possible the glorious harvests for our God. We recognize the cheerful acceptance by the Presiding Elders of the standard set for the claims of this society, but regret that the reports show that only one-half of this amount is paid, and we therefore recommend:

1st. That the apportionment for this society be seven per cent. of that apportioned for missions, and that we sacredly keep this proposition.

2d. That an hour be set apart, at the next session of our Conference, most favorable for the presence of the ministry at the anniversary of the society.

3d. That the last Sunday in May be chosen as the time for the presentation of the claims of this society to our several churches.

SEC. 2. The Vice-Presidents shall assist the President in the general oversight of the Association, and in her absence preside over its deliberations.

SEC. 3. The Recording Secretary shall keep a correct list of the members, and a record of the Minutes of all meetings.

ARTICLE VI.—ELECTIONS.

The officers of this Association shall be nominated by acclamation, and elected by ballot, at each session of the North Indiana Conference.

ARTICLE VII.

Any other committees or officers may be added and duties assumed by this Association which in the future may seem best.

BY-LAWS.

ARTICLE I.

This Association shall hold its regular meetings at some time during the session of the North Indiana Conference.

ARTICLE II.

Additions to, and amendments of, this Constitution and By-Laws may be made by a two-thirds vote of the members present at any regular meeting of the Association.

AUDITING COMMITTEE FOR FRED FISHER FUND.

We have examined the accounts kept by Rev. M. A. Harlan and find the accounts correct. We commend the great fidelity with which this work has been done.

BOARD OF CONTROL OF DEACONESS WORK.

We greatly appreciate the growth of interest in the Deaconess work. We hope to see the day when one or more of these consecrated women will be found assisting the Master's Kingdom forward to victory in every church able to secure such service.

We very cheerfully recommend that Miss Catherine Agnes Johnson, of Anderson, be consecrated to her holy mission at this session of our Conference.

We trust that from year to year the number of women who give themselves to this holy cause will increase.

We recommend that Albert B. Cline be elected Trustee, to succeed himself for a term of three years from 1905.

CHURCH EXTENSION.

1. As a Conference we appreciate the aid given to needy churches within our bounds during the past year.

2. Because of the unprecedented increase of our population, the demand on Church Extension is greater than ever before, for funds to enable the board to help furnish houses of worship.

3. We ask our Presiding Elders to apportion carefully the full amount asked for Church Extension, to the several districts and pastoral charges, and that we will present this worthy cause in all our churches and secure at least the amount asked.

4. The increase in collections this year is $134 over special bequest and collections of last year—the total for this, $4,031. Our Conference is gaining steadily, and with more effort can lead the entire denomination in this great benevolence. Interest in our own Conference, as well as in the general cause, should inspire us to all diligence to secure the full amount asked, and, if possible, to go beyond it.

5. Christianity in Earnest, a quarterly in new and attractive form, will furnish information as to work and wants. Pastors can have documents for free distribution by applying to Sec'y King, 1026 Arch St., Philadelphia, Pa.

6. We appreciate the visit of Dr. Robert Forbes in the interest of the Board, greatly enjoying his able addresses, and will welcome him again to our Conference.

7. Under the successful administration of Rev. W. D. Parr, D. D., as one of the Assistant Secretaries of the Board of Church Extension, this Conference has doubled its collections. We hear with profound gratitude of his success in the work entrusted to him in other places. We will heartily welcome him to our charges as the representative of this society. We believe in Dr. Parr and his ability to take care of the great interests intrusted to him by the church. Let us endeavor for the ensuing year to make this the banner Conference of Methodism for Church Extension.

EARLE NAFTZGER, Secretary.

CHURCH INSURANCE.

We are glad to know that our people are coming to realize that it is just as much the duty of Methodists to insure their churches and parsonages as it is to build them. The board of insurance elected by the General Conference is duly incorporated, in compliance with our Book of Discipline and the laws of the State of Illinois. While the terms of insurance are much more favorable than those of stock companies, the rates are held sufficiently high to provide for all emergencies.

During the year ending January 1, 1905, there have occurred 170 losses, bringing the total number since the business began, to 745, and the total damage for which our members have been reimbursed to $150,916.69. Not a single dollar of losses has ever been due and unpaid. During 1904 the amount of new business and renewals of policies expiring aggregated $7,945,482, being a net increase, after deducting all canceled and unrenewed policies, of $2,635,467; making the total amount of policies in force $23,913,926, in which every State and Territory in the Union is represented.

At the last annual meeting, the usual 10% dividend was declared for the year just closed, leaving a conservative surplus in the treasury to provide for emergencies. It should be remembered that in spite of the fact that our Company is free from the serious conflagration hazard that constantly menaces those doing a general business, our members are protected by the same reserve as is required by law of the stock companies.

We urge all members of this Conference to help their official brethren to remember that the National Mutual Church Insurance Company is an official organization of the Methodist Episcopal Church; is under the supervision of the General Conference, and as such is entitled to the co-operation of all of our Church societies, not only because of the saving effected under its terms and the convenience of meeting its annual payments, but also—and this we wish to particularly emphasize—because it is the only insurance organization that stands between thousands of our churches and serious disaster. Let us help in this work of protecting Methodism, for it is only by reason of the co-operation of those more fortunately situated financially, that safe business can be done and help extended to those dependent upon our Company.

CHURCH LITERATURE AND PUBLISHING INTERESTS.

This is an age when the press as never before is the creator and purveyor of knowledge and power. The church should constantly study how to improve the quality, circulate the product, 'direct the aims and conserve the results of our publishing houses. No other church has the book and periodical output, the machinery for its circulation and the incentives to its patronage which are possessed by the Methodist Episcopal Church. We need, therefore, to be alert, united and persistent in the use of this agency of evangelism, culture and reform.

We are gratified with the excellent labors of Dr. J. T. McFarland, editor of our Sunday school literature, and we believe that editorially and mechanically our Sunday school literature is secondary to none. We believe it to be the sacred duty of all our presiding elders, pastors and Sunday school superintendents to see that our literature is used in all our schools, not because it is our own simply, but because it is superior and will best subserve the ends sought.

We believe that our Advocates have been well called the assistant pastor, and should be a right hand of power to every pastor. It, therefore, grieves us to note the small proportionate circulation of the Western Christian Advocate in the North Indiana Conference, making our church less potential and the pastors' work harder. As no wrong can be righted until the cause or causes be known and as so many elements enter into this problem, therefore, your committee suggest the creation of a commission who shall thoroughly investigate this subject and, if possible, locate the trouble. The said commission shall report to the next session of our Annual Conference.

We suggest as members of said commission: P. Ross Parrish, L. M. Krider, E. C. Dunn, G. H. Myers, M. A. Harlan, C. W. Smith.

P. ROSS PARRISH, Chairman.

CLASS MEETINGS.

WHEREAS, The Class Meetings have always been a source of power and help to the church, developing Christian experience and encouraging young Christians, and

WHEREAS, The Class Meeting seems to be losing interest for some, and its privileges are not improved by many of the members of the church, therefore,

Resolved, That as pastors we urge our people to attend this means of grace and take an active part in the same, and that we will preach on the subject at least once during the year.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS.

Your Committee on the Records of the District Conferences begs to report as follows:

That they examined the records of the Fort Wayne and Muncie District Conferences—the only districts so organized as the committee understands—and found the minutes properly kept, including full lists of the members present, reports, etc., all corresponding to each Conference being substantially bound in book form.

Respectfully submitted.

EDUCATION.

THEOLOGICAL SCHOOLS.

Whatever may have sufficed in the past, we believe that the spirit of the times, as well as the exigencies of the work of the Church of Jesus Christ in the twentieth century, will demand a consecrated, educated, and spirit-filled ministry. We therefore advise every young man who feels the call of God into the work of the ministry, to make a thorough preparation in one of our Theological schools.

GARRETT BIBLICAL INSTITUTE.

This school is centrally located, being at Evanston, Illinois, near Chicago. For beauty of situation, advantages of libraries, opportunities to pursue other courses of study, as well as opportunities for self-help to those who desire them, and inspiration from environment, this school is unexcelled.

The increase in number of students in this school the past year, bespeaks its popularity and the confidence of the Church in the profound scholarship, eminent piety, and abiding faith of the faculty in the Divine Authority of the Holy Scriptures.

THE WOMAN'S COLLEGE, OF BALTIMORE.

This college was instituted by the Baltimore Conference, as a result of the celebration of the first Centennial of the Methodist Episcopal Church in America. There are seven buildings, modern and suitable for the highest educational purposes, and comparable with other institutions for similar work. This college has done the best work, and maintains a very fine reputation. It is well known because of the action of the General Conference of 1904, relative to the financial crisis caused by the Baltimore fire. The institution is before the whole Church for support from our benevolent people. We are especially pleased that a member of this Conference, the Rev. F. M. Stone, has been selected as Endowment Secretary, and we commend him as wise, discreet, an able preacher, and a courteous gentleman.

TAYLOR UNIVERSITY.

This school in many respects is unique. It is the only one in Methodism controlled by the Local Preachers. It is under the exclusive control of the National Association of Local Preachers. The spiritual life is so emphasized and the surroundings are so free from some of the temptations ordinarily found in a college town, that the students are not likely to become careless and drift away from the faith. We most heartily commend this institution, which is located within the bounds of our Conference, at Upland, Indiana. We congratulate the institution on the wise selection of the President, Rev. C. W. Winchester, D. D., who is filling the office with great credit.

BOSTON UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY.

To say that this is our oldest Theological School is no disparagement to the institution. A thorough investigation will show it to be unsurpassed in equipment adequate for all demands, with a faculty capable, consecrated and thorough. The school is admirably situated on Beacon Hill, only three blocks from the State House; easily accessible to the College of Liberal Arts, the great libraries and art galleries of the city, where students may be admitted without charge. Mission work in the slums may be studied, as one can reach them in five to fifteen minutes walk from the University. Thus admirably situated and thoroughly equipped, it is able to fit men for the highest and best work in the Church.

ILLINOIS WOMAN'S COLLEGE.

It is a deplorable fact that now and then parents send their daughters to parochial schools, not in harmony with the spirit of our Church, not knowing that we have at Jacksonville, Illinois, a school exclusively for women, whose management and moral tone fully warrant us in recommending it as a progressive and thorough school and also as a safe Christian home for young women. We therefore urge our ministers to call the attention of parents to this, the only Methodist school exclusively for women in the Middle West.

THE AMERICAN UNIVERSITY.

We rejoice in the rapid progress that is being made in the erection of buildings, the securing of endowment, and the preparation for opening this school for post-graduate work in the near future. The building of History is complete. The Administration building will be erected immediately. The University will soon be prepared to receive students. The value of lands and buildings with endowment and bequests aggregates $2,500,000. We congratulate the University on securing the services of the Rev. W. C. Davidson, D. D., as endowment secretary, and promise him our hearty support.

DREW THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

This great school, situated at Madison, New Jersey, affords advantages of a country home, and contact with great city problems. It is one of our greatest and best equipped schools, near the city of New York, and it affords fine opportunity for self-support and missionary work. Free scholarships in Columbia and New York Universities are extended to those desiring post-graduate work.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Most heartily do we commend the work for higher Christian education, which is being accomplished for the Church through the Board of Education.

We urge that Children's Day be observed, and that a collection be taken in every charge according to the requirement of the Discipline.

We commend the Christian Student to our people. It should have a wide circulation. This would greatly promote the interests of higher education. We urge upon our people the importance of supporting our own institutions, and ask that our people be exhorted to give their children a Christian education of the highest character as a preparation for the noblest service.

DEPAUW UNIVERSITY.

We take a just pride in the increasing influence and the splendid growth of our own DePauw University. The unprecedented increase of students entering this year is a fact of great encouragement. The reports of the year bear testimony to the superior advantage of an improved equipment, a loyal and efficient faculty and a wise and competent leadership.

We rejoice in the eminently successful administration of Dr. Edwin H. Hughes. His selection by Governor Durbin as a member of the State Board of Education and his election as President of the State Teachers' Association have brought honor to the University as well as to himself. He has brought the University to the attention of the people of our State by his splendid addresses, and the fact that he is increasingly in demand for important occasions is a compliment to our Methodism.

The financial outlook for the University is encouraging. The demands of the present are as imperative as ever and additional resources would make possible the enlargement of plans and greatly increase the efficiency and the influence of the school. We expect the University to continue calling for our support and Christian interest, and we pledge ourselves anew to an earnest co-operation for its future success.

We wish here to commend the action of the board in the selection of Rev. S. B. Towne, D.D., as field secretary. His natural gifts and qualifications, his acquaintance with the affairs of the University and with the Methodism of Indiana admirably fit him for this important position. We extend to him a hearty invitation to come into our churches and interest our people in this most important cause.

We recommend that an apportionment of fifteen cents per member be made for the University this year. We rejoice in the response given to this request in the past year, and we most earnestly plead that the full apportionment be raised.

We congratulate the University on receiving the offer from Mr. Carnegie of a gift of $50,000 for a new library. We offer our sincere thanks to the donor and we pledge ourselves to help in meeting the conditions imposed.

TRUSTEES AND VISITORS.

We recommend that T. J. Johnston and L. A. Beeks be appointed visitors to Taylor University, the Rev. P. Ross Parish, D.D., be appointed visitor to the Illinois Woman's College at Jacksonville, Ill., Rev. M. S. Marble, D.D., to the Boston School of Theology, Rev. W. D. Parr, D.D., to Drew Theological Seminary; the Rev. Ray L. Semans and Rev. C. C.

Cissell, D.D., to Garrett Biblical Institute. We recommend Rev. L. J. Naftzger as visitor to DePauw University for a term of three years, from September 1, 1905.

We recommend that Hardin Rhodes, William H. Charles and Rev. M. H. Mendenhall, D.D., be elected trustees for a term of three years from September 1, 1905.

EDMUND F. ALBERTSON, Secretary.

EPWORTH LEAGUE CABINET.

1. The Conference Epworth League Cabinet recommends that no Conference Convention be held this year, as it is the year of the International Convention at Denver, Colorado.

2. We recommend also that, for the sake of uniformity, all Chapters hold their annual election of officers in the month of May, and that the address of the local Secretary be sent to the General office in harmony with the request of the General Secretary.

3. We believe the Epworth Herald, as a religious paper for young people, to be without a peer. We recommend our pastors to urge all our young people to subscribe for it.

4. We hereby express our appreciation of Dr. E. M. Randall's able address at our anniversary, and will welcome him back to our Conference in the future and pledge him our hearty support.

EARLE NAFTZGER, President.

FREEDMEN'S AID AND SOUTHERN EDUCATION SOCIETY.

We, your Committee on Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education, beg leave to report to you as follows:

The mission of this great society is to every seventh man, woman and child of this vast American Republic, viz., the uplifting, training, educating and Christianizing of the 3,000,000 of needy white, and 9,000,000 of destitute black people of the Southland. The results already accomplished are indeed phenomenal. Thousands of thoroughly Christian ministers, teachers, physicians, nurses, men and women trained in our forty-six industrial schools, have already gone forth to aid in the uplifting of their unfortunate fellows and to aid in the development of the larger life of the republic.

The demand for Christian teachers and workers trained in these schools was never so imperative as now. Therefore, the Society justly deserves, not only the recognition, but the loyal support of all Christian people, every citizen and patriot as well.

The very fact of the large decrease in administration and fixed expenses, and the corresponding increase in the amounts appropriated for our schools, commends this work to the generous support of the Church. There was given to the schools in cash appropriation from the General Fund during the past quadrennium $110,658 more than was appropriated for the purpose during the previous quadrennium.

The receipts from incidentals and room rent paid by the students have advanced from $58,079.28 in 1900, to $87,478.92 last year.

It is a pleasure to call attention to the fact that 3,520 students were given instruction in twenty-six various industries last year.

Fresh and interesting illustrated tracts, and literature covering every phase of the Society's work, will be furnished free of charge to any pastor who may apply for them. The Christian Educator will also be sent free for one year to every one subscribing one dollar or more for this cause.

We also urge that "Lincoln Birthday Sunday" shall be observed in every Sunday School in our territory, and we desire that it shall have its place among the special yearly observances of the church.

Our Freedmen's Aid Schools are great centers of clean, moral, religious life and power. Of all the 13,000 or more young people who have gone forth from these schools, not one as yet has ever been proven guilty of any crime against society, womanhood or law. Last year there were nearly 700 conversions reported.

Because of these reasons, we, your committee, urge that our apportionment this year of $5,500 be raised in full.

The amount given last year from July 1, 1903, to June 30, 1904, was only $2,715.00; hence, we earnestly request the Presiding Elders to apportion to the several districts their respective amounts, and we as pastors pledge ourselves to do our best to raise the amount in full.

We believe we voice the thought of the Conference when we say that no benevolent society is doing more thorough work for the Church and the Republic, or is more worthy of our sympathy and enthusiastic support.

HOSPITAL AND DEACONESS HOME.

We, your committee on the Indiana Methodist Episcopal Hospital and Deaconess Home, have met in consultation with Dr. C. N. Sims and Dr. C. E. Bacon, and after reviewing the situation and needs of this important undertaking, respectfully submit the following resolutions for your consideration and adoption:

Therefore, be it Resolved—

First: That we complete a thorough and vigorous canvass of each District in this Conference, in keeping with the action of the Presiding Elders of the three Indiana Conferences concerning this great movement, in Indianapolis recently.

Second: That the several ministers of this Conference send to Dr. Sims the name of any well-to-do or kindly disposed person or persons, who will probably contribute to the Hospital fund.

Third: That we pledge ourselves as ministers, to make this movement a special work in our benevolent collections.

Fourth: That the Conference leave an open column in the statistical report for this special movement, other than the "other collections" column.

Fifth: That we give hearty recognition to Dr. Sims as the General Secretary of the Hospital, and extend to him a cordial invitation to occupy our pulpits in the Hospital's interest.

MISSIONARY REPORT.

The great commission is being heard in the bounds of the North Indiana Conference: "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature." The record of the past year is praiseworthy. The future holds its rare opportunities for gracious giving to world evangelism. We, therefore, recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. That this Conference heed the call of the Conference of Presiding Elders held in Wheaton, Ill., and aim at its world-wide purpose: "The salvation of the individual and the final establishment of Christ's kingdom." Also, that we co-operate with the plans of secretary, Dr. Sheets, so well begun.

2. That we congratulate the church on its splendid response to the appeals of the pastors for money for missions.

3. That we find the station plan to be practical and urge its appeals upon the hearts of our people.

4. That every pastor call into service the Church Missionary Committee, the Epworth League, the Sunday School Missionary Society and all other helps to this great work.

5. That we obtain from our headquarters supplies of literature especially prepared to give our people such information as may incite to more liberal giving and a clearer knowledge of our foreign fields.

6. That we, as pastors, plan early in the Conference year to reach the standard of one dollar per member as a minimum for our missionary collection.

7. We recommend the re-election of the officers of the last year.

PARSONAGES AND FURNITURE.

We, the Committee on Parsonage and Furniture, view with great satisfaction the progress being made in the attempt to provide a Parsonage Home upon every Charge within the bounds of the North Indiana Conference, and to add to the convenience, comfort and beauty of the same.

We would reaffirm the resolutions of former years:

Resolved, That the Presiding Elder be requested, at the first Quarterly Conference, to inquire into the condition of each parsonage.

That the local Committee on Parsonage and Furniture be urged to provide all heavy furnishings and carpets.

That the Trustees of our parsonage property be requested to provide means for insuring and keeping the buildings in repair and beautifying the grounds.

SOCIAL AND MORAL QUESTIONS.

We, your Committee on Social and Moral Questions, submit the following report:

WHEREAS, The success of our Church depends very largely upon our attitude and action toward certain moral and social questions; therefore, be it

Resolved, First, That we realize the importance of greater attention, both by education and enforcement of law to the preservation of our American Sabbath. We especially deplore the desecration of the Sabbath, making it a day of pleasure, such as Sunday excursions, base ball, and like amusements, all of which tend to lower the standard of Sabbath observance as taught in the Word of God. We most heartily indorse the Sunday League of America, and as a body join with it in the protection of the sacredness of the Sabbath.

Second, That we will use our efforts to cause the discontinuance of granting divorces on other than Scriptural grounds.

Third, That we heartily indorse the work of the Reform Bureau in its efforts to secure the co-operation of our government in using its influence with England to withdraw its treaty by which Great Britain has forced the opium traffic upon China, and recommend that our churches send petitions and resolutions to the following effect:

To the Honorable Secretary of State:

Undersigned societies and individuals earnestly petition you to use your great diplomatic influence for the withdrawal of the treaty by which Great Britain has forced the opium traffic upon China to the moral injury of its people and detriment of all legitimate commerce.

Fourth, That we most heartily indorse paragraph No. 248 of the Discipline, and emphasize its importance and utility; and we will urge our people to recognize and obey our rules, and to abstain from those questionable methods of raising funds for the support of the church.

SUNDAY SCHOOL.

1. We are convinced that the income of the Sunday School Union should be very largely increased that it may be enabled to meet more fully the demands upon it coming from both the home and the foreign fields. To this end we urge (1) that the apportionment to the churches shall be not less than one-twentieth of the amounts apportioned for missions; and that an earnest effort shall be made to meet these apportionments. (2) We approve and commend the plan proposed by the secretary that in our Sunday schools a special class offering be made by every class during the year for the Sunday School Union.

2. We commend to our people for use in our Sunday schools the whole series of our Sunday School publications, and strongly disapprove of the substitution of any other publications for our own. We congratulate the church on the enlargement and improvement of the Sunday School Journal and we heartily approve the proposition of the editor that its circulation should be greatly extended by its introduction, as far as possible, into all our families as a stimulus and help to the study of the Bible.

3. We are in hearty sympathy with Dr. McFarland's plans for a more thorough training of the teachers of our Sunday schools, and we recommend that pastors use their utmost endeavors to procure for their Sunday schools the Teacher's library recommended by him, in order that the teachers may have available the best literature relating to their work. And we are gratified with the announcement that arrangements have been made for an advanced course of Bible study, in which the Methodist Episcopal Church South, and the Methodist Episcopal Church of Canada are to join with our own church.

4. In general, we urge an increased interest and intelligent zeal in all Sunday school work, proceeding always upon the assumption that our children are God's children, and that our primary duty is not to rescue them but to instruct them and train them in knowledge and virtue.

5. We recommend that Rev. C. E. Line, D.D., be appointed Sunday School Secretary of this Conference, to co-operate with the Secretary of the Sunday School Union in all matters relating to Sunday school interests.

6. While heartily sympathizing with all State and International Sunday School work, we believe that the work of our own Sunday School Union should be given precedence over all other organizations in the interest and financial support of our people.

TRACTS.

1. We have considered with much interest the last annual report of the Tract Society and other information concerning it that have come into our hands, and we are convinced that this society represents an agency of actual influence but imperfectly understood by the church, and of possible power as yet but slightly drawn upon. As to its actual work, testimony comes from almost every part of the world concerning its great helpfulness in disseminating the truths of Christianity and in the cultivation of the virtues of Christian character. Its printed pages, scattered widely, carry into remotest places, and to people who would not be reached by the preacher or teacher, the good seed of the kingdom. The resources of the society are inadequate to meet but a fraction of the demands for help that come from the home and foreign fields.

2. We believe that the Tract Society should be so strengthened as to enable it to co-operate more efficiently in the work of city evangelization, that is now coming to be recognized as being of such urgent importance. Protestant literature, far beyond what present means make available, is needed for the foreign-speaking peoples in our cities. Our Tract Society should at least be enabled to strongly co-operate with our city evangelization agencies in carrying the Gospel to the neglected, ignorant and miseducated people in our great centers of population and in remote and but slightly evangelized regions of the country.

3. We are convinced also that the tract may be made, beyond all use that thus far has been made of it, an agency of usefulness in connection with our churches. Pastors could use them with great effectiveness in their pastoral work; the Committee on Tracts in each church could be used for the instruction of the youth of the church in doctrines and practical duties, and in warning them against many temptations and evils to which they are exposed. If pastors will give the matter proper consideration, they may open doors of usefulness to many members of their churches in the tactful use of tract literature who would otherwise be able to render but little Christian service.

4. We therefore recommend: (1) That every pastor shall send for a copy of the report of the Tract Society, and for the catalogue of its publications, which may be had without cost, and inform himself with regard to the work that is being done by the Society, and so be able to explain it to the people. (2) That in all our churches the collection for the Tract Society be taken, and an earnest effort be made to largely increase the contributions for this cause; and (3) That pastors take thought concerning the uses to which they can put tracts in the work of their pastorates, and that all churches taking collections for the Tract Society ask for carefully chosen tracts for their use to the value of one-half of the annual collections taken, and beyond that purchase as they are able to use most helpfully in their various communities.

SUSTENTATION.

1. Many of the weaker charges of our Conference are unable to contribute a sufficient support to their pastors, and as we have no other resources but the Conference Sustentation Fund to meet this need, we feel that our pastors and people should be impressed with the importance of this cause.

2. We recommend that the amount of $2,500 be apportioned this year, as last, to the Districts, and that the funds collected be applied in the several Districts by a committee of three, of which the Presiding Elder shall be chairman.

3. The committee has audited the accounts of the several District Committees, and finds them correct, and respectfully submits the following statement:

TEMPERANCE.

1. We are in hearty accord with the attitude of the Methodist Episcopal Church on the question of Temperance and Prohibition as expressed in the Discipline.

2. We regard the use of alcoholic beverages in any degree as unsafe for the individual, and the sale of the same as dangerous to the best interests of the family, the community and the State; and we therefore affirm that the correct attitude of the Christian should be that of total abstinence for the individual and absolute prohibition for the State.

3. We indorse the action of our last General Conference in regard to the organization of the "Temperance Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church," and we will organize our Conference, our districts, our pastoral charges whenever practicable, and our Sunday Schools according to the directions of Section 434 of the Discipline of 1904. In accordance with said section we recommend the election of the following officers of the Conference Temperance Society: President, C. E. White; Vice-President, F. F. Thornburg; Secretary, R. J. Wade; Treasurer, W. W. Martin. (District Committees to be appointed by the Presiding Elders, according to Section 434 of the Discipline.)

4. We reaffirm our confidence in the Anti-Saloon League and its present management in Indiana. We indorse the plan of State Superintendent Rev. U. G. Humphreys, D. D., in assigning Field Agents to a given portion of the State, and we pledge to them our earnest support in their efforts to abolish the saloon. We urge all our pastors and people to use every means in their power to increase temperance sentiment in their communities and churches, and to co-operate with all organizations that have for their object the overthrow of the saloon.

5. We note with pleasure the recent legislation in this State strengthening the remonstrance feature of our temperance laws, and while we stand committed to the principles of total abstinence and prohibition, we will give our faithful support to the observance and enforcement of such laws as we have until better ones can be enacted. It is our purpose to continue our opposition to the liquor business until we have gained a complete victory over the enemy of our homes. We will not regard this victory complete until we have absolute statutory prohibition of the manufacture, sale or use of intoxicating liquors as a beverage, followed by a strict enforcement of the laws by our civil authorities. We commend the law enforcement policy of Gov. J. Frank Hanly; and we are glad that he has decided to appoint no drinking man to administer the laws of the State.

6. As far as practicable we will observe the Fourth of July each year as a day consecrated to the promotion of Temperance Reform. We will seek to interest our Sunday Schools and Epworth Leagues in this effort to redeem our national holiday and dedicate it to this useful purpose.

7. We approve the plan of the Program Committee in giving one evening during the Conference session to the Temperance Anniversary, and request that similar arrangements be made next year. We desire to express our appreciation of the unique and forceful address delivered this year by the Rev. Geo. R. Stuart, D. D., of Cleveland, Tenn.

8. We call upon all our people to abstain from the use of tobacco in any form, and will lovingly urge them to abstain from handling it as an article of merchandize. We commend the action of the late Legislature in the enactment of the anti-cigarette law, and shall use our best efforts to secure the enforcement of the same.

9. We recommend the election of Rev. L. J. Naftzger, D. D., and Rev. C. E. White, as delegates to the International Convention of the Anti-Saloon League, to be held at Indianapolis, Nov. 22-24, 1905. We also recommend the election of Rev. Madison Swadener, D. D., and Rev. O. A. Trabue as Trustees of the Anti-Saloon League of Indiana.

WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

We bring you greetings today from the 115 organizations of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society in the North Indiana Conference, with its 3,928 members.

The past year has been one of encouragement, though we have not seen the fulfillment of our desires. This desire is an organization in every charge in our Conference. For the loyal women who are now toiling so faithfully we praise God. We covet for every woman in the Conference the blessing which comes to those who engage in this blessed work for the Master.

We welcome two new auxiliaries with 41 members; seven new Standard Bearer organizations with 245 members; three new King's Herald organizations with 76 members, and two new Little Light-Bearers' societies with 57 members. Thus our gain from new organizations alone is 419 members. Many old societies have been active in securing new members.

Our special work list, under the direction of Mrs. A. B. Cline, is growing. Requests are frequent for "A Bible Woman," "Orphan" or "Scholarship." We now support nine missionaries, 30 Bible women, 68 orphans and girls, 12 scholarships; a number support medical work and others assist in the training of our missionaries at Folts Institute.

Besides our special work and dues, we paid $1,450 Thank Offering, $250 Christmas Offering, and from the little mite boxes we gleaned $709. Our total report for the year is $9,677.75; increase, $516.03.

The officers in our circuit organizations deserve special mention for their loyal service through very great difficulties. One writes: "I drove seven miles for twenty cents, and twelve miles for ten cents." With such consecrated workers can we fail to go forward?

Thanking our pastors, presiding elders and the host of loyal women, for their support, we enter the new year expecting greater victories for our Lord and Master.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. C. U. WADE, Conference Secretary.

WOMAN'S HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

Twenty-two years of uninterrupted progress is written by our Conference Society. They have been years of earnest effort rewarded by constant growth and development. I most heartily congratulate you on the splendid work of the past year. It has surpassed all preceding years. Our Treasurer reports an increase of about 20 per cent. in cash receipts over last year.

While we rejoice in past achievements and are glad that we have had a part in the blessed results, yet we would not flatter ourselves with the thought that we have fully met all our responsibilities. The wider view of the field reveals so much to be done, that it seems that we have hardly begun the work that Providence has raised us up to accomplish.

We must multiply our efforts, learn more rapidly, pray more earnestly, and give more liberally, before we can anywise feel that we are meeting the full measure of our responsibility.

Three Auxiliaries and six Young People's Societies have been organized during the year. We now have sixty Auxiliaries with 2,250 members, eighteen Young People's Societies with 450 members, about 500 Jewels. A number of life members have been added this year.

Our Conference has been quite active in sending supplies to the ministers on the frontier and to the Industrial Homes, and the excellent quality of these supplies has brought comfort and good cheer to many needy ones.

The Silver Offering planned by the General Executive Board last fall must receive our prayerful attention. This year being the twenty-fifth anniversary of our organization, and as the Lord has so graciously smiled upon us, we want to make a Thank Offering of $200,000.

It is proposed that each member pay ten cents per year for the twenty-five years, making $2.50. Am glad to know that a number of our societies are already raising their apportionment and are sending it to the Treasurer, and am quite sure we shall have a general response throughout our Conference. Let us all get to work earnestly and prayerfully, and have it provided or planned for by the National Meeting next fall at Indianapolis, so that when "North Indiana Conference" is called our representatives can respond, "met in full," or will be by 1906.

WOMAN'S WORK IN THE CHURCH.

We commend the important work done by women in the Church, and express our thanks to them for their fidelity to the public services and to the social meetings.

We pledge ourselves to assist, in every way possible, to make more efficient the plans of the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Societies, and the Ladies' Aid Societies, and we will aid the Deaconess and W. C. T. U. work.

We are glad that the presidents of the Ladies' Aid Societies are made members of the Quarterly Conference.

• We will cheerfully welcome all accredited representatives of these societies and will join in making their work successful.

RESOLUTIONS.

BISHOP SPELLMEYER.

We are especially grateful for the urbanity, Christian spirit, and able presidency of our beloved Bishop, Henry Spellmeyer, D. D. We have been instructed and inspired by his able sermon, his wise counsels, and his brotherly admonitions. We wish for him many years of usefulness and happiness in the great office to which the church has called him.

COMMUNION CUP.

WHEREAS, Rev. O. V. L. Harbour has invented a Sanitary Communion Cup that we believe will give satisfaction in all churches, because it is so formed that a pure communion service in the administration of the wine is attained for each and all at the Lord's table, by the use of the "common" cup. Therefore,

Resolved, The use of his Sanitary Communion Cup among all our churches be encouraged.

F. G. BROWNE.

T. M. GUILD.

WM. J. HARKNESS.

LEWIS REEVES.

Resolved, That we extend to our beloved brother, Lewis Reeves, our hearty thanks as a recognition of his careful, self-sacrificing labors as Assistant Statistical Secretary for the past twelve years.

MEMORIAL SERVICE.

WHEREAS, The business sessions of our Conference have been broken in upon by various special interests, and the same is likely to occur next year; and,

WHEREAS, The most appropriate hour for such a sacred service as a memorial for our deceased brethren or their wives is the Sabbath day.

Resolved, That we request the Program Committee for next year to arrange for the memorial service at a suitable hour on the Sabbath day instead of at any hour of the business sessions.

ORGANIZATION BOARD OF CONFERENCE EXAMINERS.

The Board of Conference Examiners, as appointed by Bishop Spellmeyer, April 1, 1905, consisting of the following named persons, viz.: Frank G. Browne, J. A. Sumwalt, C. E. White, C. B. Wilcox, C. W. Smith, Sherman Powell, Perry E. Powell, C. W. Shoemaker, C. King, T. J. Johnson, T. M. Guild and E. F. Albertson, met immediately on their appointment, and organized by electing Frank G. Browne, President; C. King, Secretary and Registrar, and J. A. Sumwalt, Treasurer. The President was authorized to distribute the work of conducting the review and examinations in the Conference Course of Studies to the members of the Board. On invitation from T. J. Johnson, it was decided to hold the mid-year examinations in the church in Union City in October, at the call of the President.

C. KING, Secretary.

PRESIDING ELDERS' REPORTS.

Resolved, That the Secretary be instructed to print the reports of the Presiding Elders in the Conference Minutes, and that he be given authority to edit the same.

TAYLOR UNIVERSITY.

Mr. Thomas W. Williams, of Upland, having given to Taylor University a large gift, tiding that beloved institution across a dire necessity; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we, the North Indiana Conference, express to him our appreciation of his generosity, praying God's every blessing upon him, and acknowledge to him that we are anxious that Taylor University may have enlarging prosperity to prosecute the great work she is doing for Methodism and the kingdom of Christ.

THANKS.

We record our high appreciation of the generous hospitality of the churches of Portland, and the citizens who have so cordially welcomed us to their homes.

We are under great obligations to the pastor, Rev. C. E. Line, D. D., for his tireless endeavors in providing for our comfort and convenience in transacting the business of the Conference. We have had many great hosts, but none greater than Dr. Line.

Our thanks are extended to the Banks for their courtesies.

To Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Harris, Evangelists, for their very efficient help in the Pentecostal services.

To those in charge of the Conference post-office and those in charge of the check room, for their most efficient service and courteous bearing.

Our Secretaries, Statistical Secretaries, Treasurer and assistants have all been faithful and accurate in the performance of their duties.

We are thankful for the most able management of the great congregations by the Ushers, who have invariably been courteous and kind.

The Choir of the church, the Organist, and many others have contributed very largely to the success of our anniversaries, and other services, by their splendid choruses, quartettes, duets, solos, and leadership in congregational singing, for all of which we are thankful.

OBITUARY.

MRS. AMANDA W. HARRISON.

Mrs. Amanda W. Harrison, widow of the late Rev. John Harrison, a member of the North Indiana Conference, was born in Lebanon, Warren county, Ohio, February 3, 1818, and was transferred to her eternal home, June 19, 1904, at the advanced age of 86 years, 4 months and 16 days. Her parents, William and Nancy Miller Woodward, were numbered among the early settlers of what was called the Northwest Territory. With a number of their neighbors they left their native home in New Jersey to make their fortunes in the great Northwest, and settled near Cincinnati, Ohio. Here they remained but a short time, when they removed to Warren county, Ohio, where the deceased was born and grew to womanhood.

It was here that she was married to a member of the Mendenhall family, who were among the pioneers of Miami county, Ohio. After a married life of only five years she was left a widow with the care and training of two children resting upon her. One of these children, Mrs. Emily Stubbs, of Richmond, Indiana, still lives, and was able to partially reciprocate the love and devotion of her widowed mother, by tenderly caring for her during the last days on earth.

On November 18, 1846, she was united in marriage with Rev. John Harrison, at New Burlington, Clinton county, Ohio. Of this union two sons—our beloved brother, Rev. O. S. Harrison, a member of this Conference, and L. C. Harrison, a journalist, of Indianapolis, still survive.

The Christian life and character of Sister Harrison deserves more than a passing notice, and merits more attention and space than can be given them in this memoir. She was converted, and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church very early in her girlhood days. Upon being left a widow, she removed to Cincinnati, Ohio, where she became an active member of the Morris Chapel Class, and cheerfully bore her share of the burdens in those early days of struggle and growth. When she became the wife of a minister of the Gospel, she at once threw all her powers of mind, body and soul into the work of being a real helpmeet to her husband in his divinely called ministry, and without undue laudation it can be said that much of the success attending his ministry was due to her untiring energy and wise counsel. Nothing seemed to give her greater pleasure, on arriving on a new charge, than to gather the children of the charge into the services of the Sunday School and assist in training them in Christian life and character. By precept and word she sought to arouse the careless and discouraged membership of the church into greater activities for the promotion of the interests of the Kingdom of Christ.

With a progressive mind and clear perception she always took a lively interest in the forward movements of the Church and State, believing that back of them she saw the guiding hand of a wise Providence. Upon the superannuation of her husband they removed to their own quiet home in the city of Richmond, in which they spent the remaining years of their lives. When the shadow of death flitted across the threshold of their home and took away the husband, the widow remained cheerful and ceased not her active interest and work in the church. Though the years of her life were multiplied, yet she retained her faculties clear and strong until the last.

When it became evident that her days on earth were few, she was removed to the home of her daughter where she received every attention that love could devise. The last weeks of her life were weeks of weariness and suffering, yet in spirit she remained pleasant and cheerful. When the messenger came for her she had nothing to do and was able to answer, "Ready."

The funeral services were held in the First M. E. Church in Richmond, of which she had been a member since her removal to the city, and were in charge of her pastor, Rev. Madison Swadener, who was assisted by Rev. G. H. Hill, Presiding Elder, and Revs. M. S. Marble and J. O. Campbell. Her body rests near that of her husband in Earlham Cemetery to await the call to everlasting life.

MRS. CHARLOTTE ANDREW.

Mrs. Charlotte Andrew, the subject of this memoir, was born in New York city, March 8, 1827, and from her temporal home in Cicero, Indiana, was called to her eternal home, September 29, 1904, at the age of 77 years, 6 months and 21 days. She with her parents came to Indiana from their Eastern home about the year 1837 and settled near Fort Wayne. These early days in Indiana to all the pioneers and their families were days of hard toil at manual labor, rigid economy in living, and simplicity of habit. Although to us who are younger, these days look uninviting and unpleasant, yet they aided in building strong and noble characters among these early settlers. Sister Andrew, though a mere child when her parents settled in Indiana, yet growing up to womanhood under the conditions of these early days she learned well the lessons they taught, which later in life bore excellent fruit in her work for the church, as the wife of a minister of the Gospel. Thus, unknown to her, the great Designer was preparing her for the life she was to live and the part she was to take in the moral uplift of the people.

The religious life of Sister Andrew was almost coeval with her natural life, beginning at a very early period when she was converted in the old school house on her father's farm. Her conversion was not of the effervescent type, which at first is easily seen and heard but soon vanishes away, but was of a real abiding character which manifested itself in a spiritual life of real power and activity. Immediately after her conversion she united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, and at once began a zealous and active religious life among the people of the community in which she lived. Sister Andrew never took a superannuated relation to the cause of Christ, but continued in the active and effective ranks until she was called to her heavenly home. Although in the closing years of her life she suffered much from the infirmities of age, and though great bodily weakness prevented her from often attending the public services of the church, yet she did not fail to faithfully use the opportunities that came to her in her shut-in condition to promote the interests of the Kingdom of God.

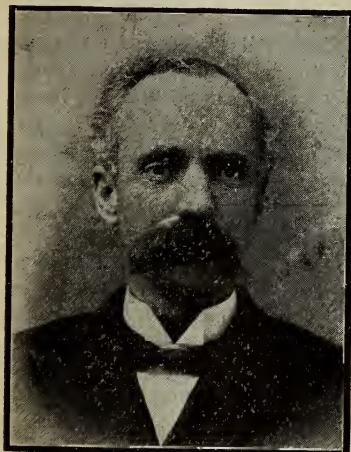

She was married to Rev. Asbury Andrew, late a member of the North Indiana Conference, September 7, 1848. When, in 1854, her husband entered the ranks of the Methodist itinerancy, she was ready to share the privations of the life of a Methodist preacher of those early days, and cheerfully receive from the hands of the church their assignment of the fields they were to occupy for the Master. During the more than 16 years of active work of her husband as a Methodist preacher, she nobly stood by him and bore well the burdens that fell upon her shoulders as his wife and co-laborer. Sister Andrew was not only a devoted wife and faithful Christian, but she was also a good mother. In her interest in the work of her husband and her devotion to her church, she did not forget her own children and home. Her two sons and five daughters bear cheerful testimony to her great devotion to them and her strong attachment to her grandchildren, always being willing to make any sacrifice or bear any burdens that would bring comfort or in any way would benefit them. In spirit she was always kind, patient and loving. Those who visited her in her last sickness were impressed with these elements of strength in her character. She remained conscious until near the close of her life, but just before entering the realm of unconsciousness she uttered, as though a prophecy of her future life, these beautiful and significant words, "There is sweet rest in Heaven."

As an appropriate closing of this memoir, we can do no better than to quote the words of her pastor, Rev. J. E. Ervin, who says: "There may be a significance in persons dying at sunset, but this aged saint of God took her flight to be with the angels just as the morning sun was rising to lighten and cheer the world. Just at that significant moment she was permitted to open her eyes in that bright land where they need no sun, but where the Lord God and the Lamb are the light of it."

The funeral services were conducted by her pastor, who was assisted by Rev. B. S. Hollopeter, of Noblesville, and Rev. A. K. Mumma. Her body was then laid to rest in the cemetery at Cicero, to awaken at the call to the resurrected life forever with God the Father.

REV. JASPER I. MCCOY.

In every age and clime the fruits of Christianity have borne a striking resemblance to each other in strong and noble manhood, gentle and pure womanhood of a heroic character and an exalted purpose. By these she justifies her claims upon the life, affections and time of all peoples, nations and tongues. Among the noble specimens of the products of the Kingdom of God, was that of the life and character of our brother, Rev. Jasper I. McCoy, late a member of this Conference.

He was born in Holmes county, Ohio, November 30, 1849, and was transferred to his heavenly home, November 11, 1904, at the age of 54 years, 11 months and 11 days. Brother McCoy came with his parents to Indiana in 1853, and settled on a farm near Argos, Marshall county. While growing up to manhood he availed himself of all the advantages of the common schools of that day to secure an education. The experience of these days aroused in his mind a great thirst for more knowledge, and a laudable ambition to make of himself and of the opportunities of life all that was possible. With this end in view, he spent some time in study in the State Normal at Terre Haute. After leaving this school he spent several years in teaching in the public schools of Miami county. In 1873 he came to Peru and accepted a position as bookkeeper in one of the largest mercantile concerns of the city. After spending some years here with the firm he then accepted a clerkship in the Post Office of the city, which position he filled to the satisfaction of all concerned.

February 14, 1868, he united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, and was licensed to preach February 26, 1881. In 1882 he was admitted on trial into the Northwest Indiana Conference at its session in Michigan City, and served in that Conference, Monon and Lafayette Circuits, each of them two years. He was ordained Deacon by Bishop Foster at Attica, August 31, 1884. In 1886 he was transferred to the North Indiana Conference, which met that year at Warsaw, and was ordained Elder by Bishop Harris. In this Conference he gave sixteen years of effective service in the following charges: Russiaville, Andrews, Lima, Milford, Pendleton, Jonesboro, Wabash Circuit, Middle St. (Wabash), and Burket. At the close of his pastorate on this last charge, in April, 1900, because of greatly impaired health he was granted a superannuated relation, and moved to Denver, where he spent the remaining years of his life, and where his labors and influence were a benediction to the church and community.

Brother McCoy was an excellent preacher, clear, logical and persuasive. In his work he was especially successful in building up the financial interests, in repairing and building churches and parsonages, which stand to-day as monuments to his memory, and for which work he was especially fitted by his earlier training in commercial life. In many ways he endeared himself to his brethren in the ministry and laity, especially will he always be kindly remembered by his unordained neighboring pastors, to whom he was always willing to give a helping hand. Because of his training and methodical work he was regarded by his brethren as one of the safe men. In 1889 he was elected Assistant Treasurer of the Conference, in which position he rendered such valuable service that next year he was elected Conference Treasurer, which office he filled to the satisfaction of the Conference, until his failing health compelled him to take a superannuated relation for one year, in 1896.

He was united in marriage with Miss Emma Stutsman, of Peru, Indiana, September 3, 1874, to which union four children were born. One son and one daughter having been called to rest before their father, leaves a faithful and devoted wife, one daughter, Mrs. Clara Sellars, and one son, Earl, 10 years of age. These have the prayers and sympathy, not only of the members of this Conference, but also of the wide circle of warm-hearted friends among whom they have lived and labored.

He was a prominent member of the I. O. O. F. and its auxiliary branches, being at one time Grand Patriarch of the Grand Encampment of Indiana, and was a representative to the Sovereign Grand Lodge in 1899 and 1900, at both of which he was appointed Grand Chaplain.

Although for several years he was in failing health, yet he remained cheerful and composed, seldom complaining though a great sufferer from inflammatory rheumatism. On the 3d of last July he was taken much worse and was confined to his bed for a month, when he rallied from tuberculosis for a short time only, then slowly yielded to the powers of this disease until the messenger of our God called for him on November 11, and took him to his home beyond the skies.

The funeral services were conducted in the M. E. Church in Peru, November 14, and were in charge of Rev. W. J. Vigus, who was assisted in the devotional services by Revs. Parrish, Canse and Baker. Brother Vigus spoke of the deceased as a pastor, Brother Work as a preacher, and Brother Erlougher spoke of his last illness and his faithfulness as a Superannuate minister. A number of the other members of the Conference were present at the funeral, also the pastors of the Presbyterian and Christian churches of Peru. After the services in the church, the body was laid away to rest in the cemetery near the city, with the ritual service in charge of Rev. M. A. Harlan.

AMELIA (ALLEN) HASTY.

Amelia Allen was born in Salem, Indiana, on the 30th day of September, 1836, and departed this life in Muncie, Indiana, December 11, 1904, aged 68 years, 3 months and 11 days.

When but two years of age her parents moved to Greencastle, Indiana. Here she continued to reside until her marriage. Her mother still lives in the old home, close to the campus of DePauw University. She received her education under the careful instruction of Prof. Larrabee and wife, and enjoyed superior advantages in a literary way from her near residence to old Asbury College. This gave to her a broad culture that was very manifest throughout all her life. She was married to the Rev. Ezra F. Hasty, on the 25th day of March, 1861, by the Rev. George M. Boyd. To them three children were born, Elma, Allen and Wilbur Mitchell, who passed away at the age of two years.

She was converted at the age of ten years and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, under the pastorate of Rev. H. N. Barnes. In those days children did not receive the attention in the church that is now given to them, nevertheless she remained faithful and efficient; it may be that this was the cause of her wonderful interest in the children in all the after-years of her life. She took charge of the Primary Department of the Sunday School at Greencastle, Ind., when only sixteen years of age, and here gave promise of the wonderful ability that characterized her work in all the charges that she and Bro. Hasty served. Here she had two of the children of President (now Bishop) Bowman in her class. He gave it as his opinion that she was even then the best teacher of children that he had ever known. In almost every charge she taught in the Sunday school, either in the primary department or a class of older young people, and many are the young men and women who will rise up and call her blessed because of the inspiration she gave them towards a holy life.

Upon her husband coming to Muncie as a pastor, she took the primary class and soon increased it from ten or fifteen to over three hundred, and many of the efficient and faithful members of the High St. church today are the results of her earnest work in that class. All of the pall-bearers who will bear her body to its last resting-place were members of that class.

She shared with her husband the trial and victories of the work of the ministry for forty-three years in the following charges: Huntington, Kendallville, Warsaw, Goshen, Noblesville, Marion, Mishawaka twice, Richmond, Pendleton twice, Knightstown, Muncie, Elkhart, Ligonier, Tipton, Union City. About twelve years of this time have been spent in this city, where her husband has been pastor, Presiding Elder and General Secretary of the Preachers' Aid Society. In all this work she has been most efficient and faithful. She was quiet and unassuming, yet most energetic and so absolutely unselfish and self-sacrificing that eternity alone will reveal the fullness of her accomplishment. She was frail in body but exceedingly vigorous in mind and spiritual activity.

Her religious life was characterized by deep devotion and great faith. This naturally made her a useful helper in every department of the church's activity. It especially made her a great inspiration and source of strength to her husband in his work. It was always a great pleasure to her to enjoy the privileges of the sanctuary, and no preacher ever found her a listless hearer, but frequently her intelligent face, lighted up by the influence of the blessed life within, furnished him an inspiration that enabled him to preach with more unction and power. She had made it a habit to linger a little while to express her appreciation of the sermon, and always did it in such a way as to greatly help the preacher.

Jesus was to her an ever-present helpful friend, and she could say out of a full heart:

"He is my altar; I His holy place;
I am His guest, and He my living food;
I'm His by penitence; He mine by grace;
I'm His by purchase; He is mine by blood;
He's my supporting elm, and I His vine;
Thus I my best Beloved's am; thus, He is mine."

The affliction which resulted in her death began several years ago, and for the past two years she has suffered intensely, at times even more than her most intimate friends knew, but she has continued faithful to all her obligations and even beyond her strength attended the means of grace.

Her passing away was most beautiful; while friends in a lower room sang the old hymns she loved so much she was giving to her family her parting blessing. And at last requested a friend to sing that beautiful hymn of Cardinal Newman's, "Lead, kindly light." She recognized the first stanza and expressed her delight, but even before the last words had been reached she was gone and was with those "Whose angel faces smiled, which we have loved long since and lost awhile."

We do not say she is dead; she is not dead, but sleepeth.

"Nothing is dead but that which she wished to die;
Nothing is dead but wretchedness and pain;
Nothing is dead but what encumbered, galled,
Blocked up the pass, and barred from real life."

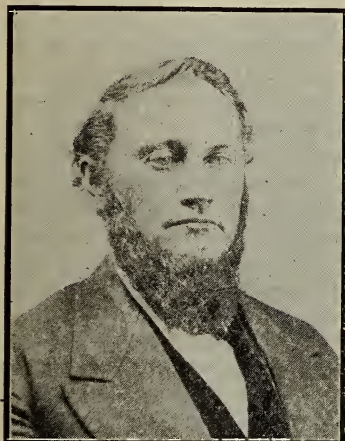

We call attention to a peculiar coincidence: A very dear friend at Ligonier, Ind., Sister Eldred, has for years each Christmas remembered Brother and Sister Hasty with a present. Last Monday Bro. Hasty sent her a telegram informing her of the death of Sister Hasty, and on Tuesday he received one from her son informing him of the death on Monday of Sister Eldred. Thus soon were these loving friends of earth united in the church triumphant above. We shall miss her, but the radiant fullness of her life will live on forever. We miss her presence, but the influence of her life abides.

Funeral services were held in the High St. church at Muncie, on Friday afternoon, conducted by her pastor, Rev. E. B. Randel, and her presiding elder, Rev. Leslie J. Naftzger, assisted by Rev. H. N. Herrick, Rev. C. King, Rev. F. M. Stone and Rev. P. J. Albright. A number of the ministers of the Conference were present. Her remains were laid to rest in Beech Grove Cemetery.

LESLIE J. NAFTZGER.

THE REV. WALTER E. CURTIS

Was born near Hamilton, Ohio, June 7, 1831, and died in Fountain City, Ind., January 2, 1905. He was the oldest of six children of William and Narcissa Curtis. About the year 1839 the family moved into Preble county, Ohio, seven miles from Richmond, Ind., where our brother grew to manhood. The parents were members of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the pastoral charge, for many years called the Eaton Circuit, and theirs was a welcome and pleasant home for very many of God's noble ministers, such as William H. Raper, George W. Walker, William Herr, Michael Marlay, Werter R. Davis, W. L. Hypes, Levi White, and Geo. W. Kelley, who married the third daughter. Bro.

Curtis united with the Church of his parents when he was comparatively young, and near the same time had serious convictions that he was called of God to the gospel ministry. Over the matter he had a great struggle, thinking at first that he might meet the Lord's claims by serving in the capacity of a local preacher. That did not, however, satisfy his conscience, and after his family was visited with a fearfully heartrending affliction, which he thought sometimes might not have come to them if he had yielded more promptly, he was received on trial in the North Indiana Conference, where, for seventeen years, he held the relation of pastor in ten different charges. He was far from being a strong man, physically, while to some he might appear otherwise. Hence, in the spring of 1887, he asked for a supernumerary relation in the Conference that he held for two years, and from that time to the end his relation was that of a supernumate. He had also been supernumerary from 1879 to 1883. The writer having grown up with that family of children in delightful and harmonious companionship, bears confident and cheerful testimony to the fact that during early life Brother Curtis was a worthy example in all his relationships. He was an obedient and dutiful son, a kind and affectionate brother, a safe and wholesome example among his playmates and school friends, and it is eminently safe to suggest that his parents never, likely, spent one sleepless night or hour on account of any improper conduct on his part, which is saying a great thing. It is, therefore, a great privilege to be permitted to bear testimony to the helpfulness of his discreet and virtuous young life. Fifty-two years ago last autumn he was married to Miss Ellen McWhinney, of Richmond, Ind., who is now the bereaved widow. Brother William Curtis, of Whitewater, and Sister Lida Williams, of Fountain City, both of Indiana, are the only ones left to comfort the good mother from a family of four daughters and two sons. During his young manhood Brother Curtis evinced, in debating clubs with his young associates, more than ordinary talent as a public speaker, and yet his unusual modesty kept him from making a just estimate of his own ability, and perhaps in some measure hindered a larger development of the talent which was so marked in the Rev. Arthur W. Elliott, of the Cincinnati Conference, and United States Senator Daniel W. Voorhees, who were his relatives. Nevertheless, he was considered an excellent preacher by those who were accustomed to hear him. The Rev. M. R. Peirce, his last pastor, feels that he has himself sustained a great loss in the death of Brother Curtis, who often visited the parsonage home, but was never burdensome, and while he seldom tried to preach, yet faithfully attended the prayer meetings and served often as class leader and steward, and had to the last a large class of adults in the Sabbath school. How helpful many of our retired ministers and widows of deceased ministers are to the pastor and Church, and on the other hand, how sad to find one now and then who hinders rather than otherwise! He was not confined to his bed very long during his last sickness, and was greatly comforted in the coming of Fletcher, his only brother, from Arcola, Ill., who had not visited him for many years, but chanced to come at that time, and remained with and nursed him until the Lord called him home. He greatly desired again to see their daughter Lida, who had gone to Florida because of ill health, but she only arrived in time to meet the procession at the beautiful Earlham Cemetery, near Richmond, and "there take the last look" just before the casket was gently lowered. It was regarded as a great favor and blessing to the family present with him that the husband, father and grandfather could at the last give to them affectionate and tender words of comfort and counsel, and especially to hear him say, as one of his last utterances, "All is bright." Following the example of his Lord and Master, he called to his bedside their son William, and with words of thoughtfulness and love, commended to His affectionate and faithful watchcare the dear mother, his beloved wife, who had for more than half a century been all to him that her marriage vows had ever pledged. At his special request the writer, an intimate friend from their early years, officiated on the funeral occasion, and was assisted by the pastor and Brothers I. R. Godwin, O. S. Harrison and W. H. Peirce. The text used was 2 Sam. i, 26: "I am distressed for thee, my brother; . . . very pleasant hast thou been to me: thy love to me was wonderful." The above-named brother of Illinois and three sisters—Mrs. A. J. Coffman, Mrs. D. W.

C. McWhinney, and Mrs. George W. Kelley, all of the city of Richmond—still remain of that Cincinnati Conference Methodist family, although Sister McWhinney has seemed for months to have been brushing the “dews on Jordan’s banks,” and she, with all of us, thought that for her “the crossing must be near.” However, she seems now to have climbed where Moses stood, and “views the landscape o’er,” and with Moses and Gilbert Haven, will doubtless soon find that “there is no river” for her to cross.

E. F. HASTY.

MRS. MARY ANN SALE.

Mary Ann, daughter of James and Nancy Warnock, was born in Monroe county, Indiana, November 16, 1820; was married to Rev. F. A. Sale, in Laporte county, Indiana, October 4, 1844, and died in Bluffton, Indiana, at the home of her son, James W. Sale, Tuesday, February 28, 1905, aged 84 years, 3 months and 12 days. When eleven years of age she was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church. The year 1849 she, with her husband, entered the traveling ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in which relation she continued for twenty-nine years, when her husband was superannuated. They settled in Marion, Indiana. It was not in the divine plan that this relation of our brother should continue for the brief period of scarce one year when he died. From that time—1879—Mother Sale had her home with her son, James W. Sale, at Bluffton, Indiana. She leaves three children: John W., of Fort Wayne, Indiana; Dennis S., of Marysville, Kansas, and James W., of Bluffton.

Some years after coming to Bluffton there was placed in her tender motherly care the oldest child of James, Bessie, whose mother died while Bessie was an infant. Her loyal devotion to this trust is fully recognized by all who knew her. Mother Sale came of good ancestry. She was a rare spirit, possessing a remarkably gentle and gracious, quiet, meek and always unassuming nature. She inherited a good intellect, a noble heart, which was augmented by the infinite grace of God in Christ into what the writer is disposed to say was the completest Christian character he has ever met. Mother Sale stood for every fundamental doctrine of the church of her choice, but was conspicuous as a believer in the doctrine and experience of the blessing of entire sanctification. The patient and serene life she has lived has been a blessing to many hundreds. Her joy was never found in the transient joys of earth so much as that she joyed in her heavenly Father. Her desire for temporal things was very plain and simple. To be in her presence was to feel as if you were touching the borders of the celestial land. Her devotion to the services of God's house was regular and constant. The last duty in life was to be in protracted meeting and respond in a feeling prayer. From this moment on she was broken. When reaching home from the service she was slightly bewildered. Her daughter found it necessary to help her to bed. She steadily declined, and after twelve days she passed on to her reward where she had hungered to go so long. With her decline she retained much of her intellectual powers and constantly rejoiced in the Lord and indulged much in conversation concerning her leave with her children and friends. Thus the good life of Grandma Sale, as she was so affectionately called, has gone out from us, but the sweet aroma of her pure Christian spirit remains, helping man to the same kind of a life and ending.

The funeral took place from her late residence and was conducted by her pastor, L. A. Beeks, assisted by her presiding elder, C. U. Wade. The interment was in the I. O. O. F. cemetery at Marion, Indiana, by the side of her husband. Rev. Almon Greenman assisted at the grave.

L. A. BEEKS.

MARY A. SINGER.

Mary Ann Singer was born near Warren, Indiana, March 11, 1861, and died in the parsonage home at Westfield, Ind., March 5, 1905, aged 53 years, 11 months and 24 days. She was married January 5, 1876, to Isaac W. Singer, and lived for nearly thirty years in this very happy union.

Early in life she yielded to the Christian influences about her, and was happily converted to God and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church. When the call of God to preach the Gospel came to her husband, she gave him every encouragement a faithful wife could give, and entered patiently into the work she soon learned to love. No pastor could have had a more faithful helper in the work of the ministry. She never complained about where they were to go, but accepted all their appointments as from the Lord and sought to do her part faithfully in His cause.

Her Christian life was always above reproach and her example a great benediction to others. In her home life she was especially agreeable and pleasant. Her suggestions and advice to her family were helpful and showed the Christian spirit always. Faith, hope, charity, meekness, kindness, affection, purity, and earnest striving for spiritual good; these were hers. She lived long enough to make prominent these heavenly qualities and record them in the lives of others.

Those of her family to remain, are her husband, I. W. Singer, D. D., and her son, Rev. W. L. Singer, of North Minnesota Conference, and a daughter, Mrs. Emma Richards, of Huntington, Ind. The funeral was held from the parsonage at Westfield, Tuesday morning, March 7, and was participated in there by B. S. Hollopeter, W. M. Nelson, J. W. Richey and F. J. Speckien; and from the Methodist Church at Warren, Ind., March 8, under the direction of the Presiding Elder, Rev. L. J. Naftzger, D. D. The following committee from the District Conference, then in session, were in attendance: D. V. Williams, W. B. Freeland, W. A. Griest, J. M. B. Reeves; addresses were made by Brothers Henry Bridge, T. M. Guild and L. J. Naftzger. Prayer was offered by Brother Griest, the Old Testament lesson was read by Brother Freeland, and New Testament lesson by Brother J. M. Haines. Very excellent music was furnished by the Warren quartette.

Sister Singer was a member of the Eastern Star and of the Order of the Daughters of Rebekah. She sleeps in the Woodlawn Cemetery at Warren, but she lives with God forever. The following stanza is an appropriate expression of her final triumph on earth:

"But when the sun in all his state
Illumed the eastern sky,
She passed through Glory's morning gate,
And walked in Paradise,"

B. S. HOLLOPETER.

MRS. ANNA N. PRESTON.

Again has the angel of death come to the home of one of our Superannuates and taken our sister, Mrs. Anna N. Preston, who was born in Brownville, Jefferson county, New York, May 16, 1831, and fell asleep in Jesus at her home in Tower City, North Dakota, March 8, 1905. The maiden name of Sister Preston was Dodd. In the year 1855 she moved to Toledo, Ohio, where she lived some years and from where she came to Indiana. Her first marriage was to Prof. L. D. Willard, of Mishawaka, Indiana, with whom she was privileged to enjoy the bliss of married life but one year, when death removed from her her husband. In 1864 she was married to Rev. E. S. Preston, a member of the North Indiana Conference, and with whom she has shared for nearly forty-one years the toils and privations, the joys and sorrows, of a Methodist itinerant. For sixteen years, from the time of her marriage to Brother Preston, she shared with him the hard labor and anxieties of serving several of the heavy charges in this Conference. In 1880, thinking to better themselves by a change, they moved to North Dakota, where for ten years they continued in the active work of the pastorate, with the exception that three years were spent in the work in Minnesota. With this exception, she has made her home in North Dakota ever since leaving Indiana.

The religious life of Sister Preston began early, as she was converted in the days of her young womanhood. From this time until the close of her life she continued to be closely identified with the social and religious life of the church. By nature as well as by cultivation was she endowed with fine social qualities. A bright, sunny and vivacious disposition made her in her younger days the life and center of her social circle. Being of a sympathetic and generous disposition, no one in trouble ever appealed to her in vain for help. Her vision was keen and with a large horizon, looking not and seeing not the needs and ease of herself, but only those of others. She was truly unselfish and never counted it a hardship to sacrifice herself in any way for her friends and loved ones. This sympathy found expression often in her attitude towards those who came hungry to her doors. The meanest tramp was never turned away from her door unfed. She often said that she would rather feed ninety-nine who were unworthy than to let one who was worthy go hungry. Surely she has heard the Master say, "Inasmuch as ye did it unto one of the least of these, ye did it unto me."

She was a loving, devoted and kind mother, and gave the best years of her life to the three young children who were in the home of Brother Preston when she entered it. All of these children having grown up to manhood and womanhood under her care and guidance and who received so much of her love, will always have blessed memories of her and will ever keep her name precious to their hearts.

She leaves, besides her deeply bereaved husband, the three children whom she guided to manhood and womanhood, Mr. Wilbur Preston, our brother, Rev. Asher S. Preston, and Mrs. Elizabeth Preston Anderson, of Valley City, North Dakota. For some time previous to her death, Sister Preston had been gradually but surely declining in health. About three weeks before she was taken away she sustained a fall from the effects of which she was not able to rally.

The funeral services were in charge of Rev. F. J. Hibbard, who was assisted by Rev. James Anderson, of Valley City, who was her son-in-law. After the services the interment was made at Greenwood Cemetery.

APPOINTMENT RECORD

APPOINTMENT RECORD

The following Record is a continuation of that prepared by Rev. L. W. Monson, as found in his valuable Manual, and is brought down to 1905. An effort is made to condense as much as possible by using abbreviations easily understood. The figures "18" and "19" are omitted from the years given, as all the appointments are in these two centuries. In some instances no record is made of services in other Conferences, because of the lack of data.

Manufacturers of all kinds of

Church Furniture

Strictly Independent of the Trust

Important. We wish to call the attention of those who are in the market for Church Furniture to the fact that we have a modern, thoroughly equipped plant, and facilities for manufacturing our line of work second to none. ¶ We are not connected with the TRUST in any sense, and can make it to your interest to purchase from us. ¶ We guarantee our work in every particular, and will be glad to make an estimate on your work.

YOU have supplied several churches in my district with pews and church furniture. Your work has given splendid satisfaction, and I have not heard one word of complaint. You have dealt honorably with every patron. I cheerfully commend your work to all who need first-class church furniture. Your company is honest and lives squarely up to all its contracts.

CHURCH PLANS

BENJAMIN D. PRICE } Architects
MAX CHARLES PRICE }
Atlantic Highlands, N. J.

Catalogue containing description and price list of a great variety of church plans free to Ministers. To others, 20 cents.

Paper Imitation of Stained Glass. 3000 churches have used it.
It is decorative and obviates all annoyance from sunlight through the plain glass. Circular and samples free.

The Epworth Organ

is splendid to sing with—and its rich, full tone blends beautifully with the voices and gives a ringing note to the service.

The organist likes the EPWORTH organ because it is so easy to play. The large, easy-acting bellows is such a relief. The congregation likes it because the tone floats out to the remote corners of the room, and reaches the people back by the doors. The official board likes the Epworth because they get their money's worth. In buying direct from the makers at the factory price, they save the usual middle dealer's profit—a big saving.

To make it easy and safe for our customers to buy, no matter where they live, we ship Epworth organs on trial to responsible people anywhere in the United States. No money need be sent in advance; you can wait until the organ arrives, is found perfect and satisfactory. Organ must suit or be returned at our expense. By this plan we have sold thousands of Epworth organs to homes and churches throughout the United States.

We make a full line of organs for homes, Sunday schools, and churches. Our prices, $40, $55, $65, $80, $90, $100, etc.

The Woman's College of Baltimore

FOUNDED 1885 OPENED 1888

JOHN FRANKLIN GOUCHER, PRESIDENT

Situation The Woman's College of Baltimore is situated near the northern boundaries of the city of Baltimore, Md., in the new and pleasant residence section, one hundred and fifty feet above tide-water.

Buildings The buildings are seven in number—three devoted to instruction and administration, three to residence. All are new, cheerful and commodious, erected particularly for their respective purposes and containing the conveniences devised by modern architectural science. They are heated from a battery of boilers and lighted by electricity from the new Power house of the College.

Educational Equipment Ample and thoroughly furnished laboratories facilitate study of the natural sciences by modern methods. The apparatus is of recent type, carefully selected. Maps, charts, engravings, photographs and cabinets of specimens and of objects illustrating natural history and the development of the race are liberally provided. There is a good, modern working library of about ten thousand volumes, while half a million volumes are at the service of students in public and institutional libraries easily accessible.

Course of Study The course of study includes prescribed subjects and elective subjects in about equal proportions. Students who wish to follow particular lines of study are enabled to lay a solid foundation for subsequent specialization. Elective courses are offered in Greek, Latin, French, Spanish, Italian, German, English Literature, including Old and Middle English, Mathematics, Geology, Mineralogy, Physics, Chemistry, Botany, Biology, History, Economics and Sociology. Upon the completion of a course usually requiring four years, the student is graduated with the degree of Bachelor of Arts.

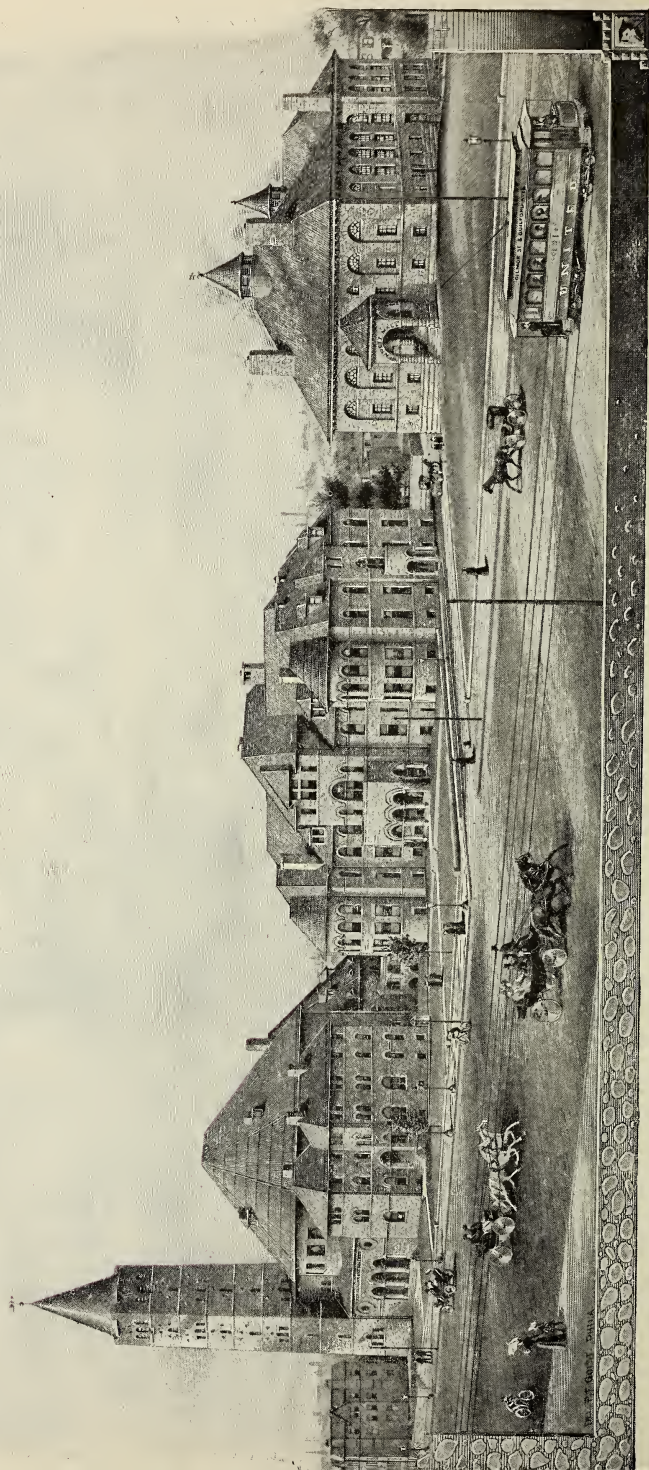

Physical Training and Hygiene Every candidate for the degree is required to pursue a course in physiology and hygiene. A commodious modern gymnasium provides systematic exercises according to the Ling, or Swedish, method under careful trainers and supervision of a physician specially prepared in mechanical therapeutics. Halls are provided for basket ball and courts for tennis and similar sports. Care is taken to prevent excess in these exercises.

Entrance Requirements These are the usual requirements of Eastern Colleges and should be met by graduates of good high schools in which at least one language in addition to Latin is embraced in the course of study. Certificates of preparation which furnish full details will be considered when offered by schools previously accredited and if found sufficient will be accepted as substitutes for examination, otherwise examinations will be necessary. Certificates of the College Entrance Examination Board are accepted.

Numbers The College is now (1905) entering upon its eighteenth session. Its alumnae number about six hundred. Recent graduating classes have numbered from sixty to seventy-nine. The freshman class numbers, and for the present is limited to, one hundred and twenty-five. The students are from all parts of the country. All religious denominations are liberally represented.

Application for Admission Program of the College courses, regulations for the government of the residence halls, blank forms of application and information upon special subjects will be promptly furnished upon request to
